FROM YOUR PRESIDENT . . .

Even though the hot summer is still with us, we have begun making plans for our Annual Genealogical Seminar & Book Fair to be held November 2, 1996. Dorothy J. (Tincup) Mauldin promises to provide valuable information on Native American research, especially the Cherokee Tribe. Also, there will be vendors with their books and materials for sale. A registration form is in this issue; send it in now!

We will also be holding our Book Fair in conjunction with the Annual Seminar. We greatly appreciate the many donations of books and other genealogical materials from authors, publishers, and others during this past year. These books and materials are displayed at the Book Fair, reviewed in THE JOURNAL and placed in the Shreve Memorial Library Genealogy Collection.

We have completed the filming of the DeSoto Parish Court House Records; copies of all 16 rolls will soon be available to researchers in the Shreve Memorial Library Genealogy Collection and in the Noel Memorial Library Archives & Special Collections (LSU-S Campus) in Shreveport. We thank the volunteers who put in many long (frustrating) hours in getting this project done.

If you have any old JOURNALS collecting dust, please don't throw them away. Consider donating them back to the organization. We are in the process of donating complete sets to archives and libraries and are in need of several of the back issues, especially Volumes I - IV.

We appreciate the donations many of you have made in memory of loved ones over the last several months. These donations are used to purchase publications and microfilm to be placed in the Genealogy Collection at Shreve Memorial Library. Donated items are marked in memory of the person for whom the donation is made.

It's time to begin thinking about new officers. The nominating committee, consisting of Jane Newberry, Janine Dunlap, Fran Hawkins, Elsie Jones, and Linda Yablonsky will meet soon to consider nominations of members for the various offices. Get involved - contact one of the committee members and volunteer your services as an officer, trustee, or committee chairman!

ASK

Miss Ima G* Bugg

* Genealogy

Miss Ima G* Bugg, our own unique, lighthearted research associate, has agreed to try to answer our questions and give us some research clues. If you are confused and in need of help, drop her a line. If she can't help you, maybe some of our readers can. Send your questions/comments to: Miss Ima G* Bugg, Friends of Genealogy, Inc., P. O. Box 17835, Shreveport, LA 71138-0508.

Dear Miss Bugg: When I ask how to locate articles containing my family's surnames, I am told to get that information from Percy. Who is this Percy fellow and where can I find him?

Dear Looking for Percy: You're not looking for a man called Percy, you're looking looking for an index. PERSI is an abbreviation for the Periodical Source Index, which is produced by the Historical Genealogy Department of the Allen County Public Library in Fort Wayne, IN. This Library has an extremely large collection of historical and genealogical periodicals and, to provide access to researchers, the periodicals are searched and each name is extracted with regard to its source. The source codes in PERSI refer to the periodical, volume, issue, article, and page.

Many periodicals are available in the Genealogy Collection of the Shreve Memorial Library; for those that are not, you can request a copy of the material from which the surname was extracted from the Allen County Public Library, P O Box 2270, Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270. Send a letter describing the articles to be copied, providing the full index reference codes from PERSI and the name of the publication. Request a reasonable number of articles in each letter, generally not more than six articles. There is a set $5 fee for each letter, to which is added 20 cents per page for copy charges. This service does not include searching the many volumes of PERSI for surnames. Please do not make requests by telephone. Of course, you can always visit this wonderful Library and search their extensive collection personally.

Dear Ima G*: The term "Land Patent" is a puzzle to me. Will you please explain this to your friend, Sam Dooley?

Dear Sam: A Land Patent was a document the federal government used to transfer a title out of the public domain to an individual. Sales of these public lands were done through local land offices. The thirteen original colonies, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas, and Hawaii were never a part of the public domain.

Dear Miss Ima: My name is Molly and I keep getting asked if my last name is Pitcher. Who is Molly Pitcher?

Dear Molly: Be proud of you name. Molly Pitcher was the nickname of a woman who fought in battle during the Revolutionary War. Born Mary Ludwig in 1754, she married a young barbar named John Hays, who enlisted as an artillery gunner in 1775. On the hot summer day of June 28, 1778, Molly joined her husband at the Battle of Monmouth and carried water in a pitcher to the thirsty soldiers. Hence her nickname. During the day, her husband fell from a heat stroke while firing his gun. She took his place and fought the rest of the battle. In 1822, the Pennsylvania legislature awarded Molly Pitcher a yearly pension of $40. She died in 1832. (The Guard, Batesville, AR, Sept. 23, 1992)

Dear Miss Bugg: I have inherited five pieces of tableware that belonged to my PATE and WARNOCK families. All of them are of Brazil Silver. The three pieces with the initial "W" are of the fiddle design. The two pieces with the initial "P" differ in design; the knife is of a shell pattern with floral etching along the handle "solid Brazil Silver, Royal Manufacturing Co." Inquiries at the local library and tableware manufacturers have been no help. These families were in Independence Co, AR prior to 1850. Any ideas? "Number 8 in Line"

Dear No. 8: Sorry, my only experience with tableware is to eat with it. Can any of our readers out there help us with this one?

Dear Ima G* Bugg: What is the next research step after the census records have been exhausted?

Dear Exhausted: The census records are just the beginning. Continue your search by reading county histories, family histories, and surname publications. You can look up your surnames in the American Genealogical & Biographical Index and in PERSI. Get into court records: conveyances, probates, land grants, tax records, etc. Another idea is to search collateral lines when you reach a dead end on your line; extended families tended to move from one area to another as a group. When you finish looking through all these records, write again and we'll give you some more ideas.

Dear Ima: Who swiped the 1870 Cass County, TX census?

Dear Swiped: Nobody. In 1861, Cass County became Davis County and in 1871 it was changed back to Cass County. So, look in the 1870 Davis County, Tx census for your Cass County ancestors.

Dear Ima G* Bugg: I've been called a "Jackrabbit Genealogist." Do I consider this a compliment or an insult?

Dear Hop-a-Long: Probably neither one, just a statement of fact. A "Jackrabbit Genealogist" is who hops from one source to another rather than tracing his ancestors systematically. He finds his great-grandfather on the 1880 Bienville Par, LA Census showing his birthplace as SC in about 1808. So, he hops to the 1810 SC Census in hopes of locating a family with a son age 2. Sometimes he gets lucky, but more often, he just gets frustrated.

A slower, but much more rewarding, method is to do your research step by step. Many of our ancestors made several moves during the 1800s, so the "Jackrabbit" often hops right over the clues that would take him back to where his ancestors really were. Concentrate on the place where you first locate your ancestor. Check land records, marriage records, church records, and others to determine how long he lived there, if he had a family there, and the names of his neighbors and those who married his children. Remember, groups of families travelled together and usually were bound by family ties. You can determine the previous place your ancestor lived from a careful study of the information you gather here. Then, go back to that area (which was probably not SC, but more likely, MS, AL, or GA), and apply the same research techniques. A little slower, perhaps, but not in the long hop!

Dear Miss Bugg: My great-grandmother died 6 May 1889 and was 71 years, 7 months, and 9 days old. No date of birth is listed on her tombstone. Isn't there a formula to determine a birthdate from this type of information?

Dear Determined: Yes, the "8870 Formula" is used to determine a birth date when the death date and the age at death is known. Here's how it works, using your facts:

Write the death date as follows:	18890506
Subtract the age	710709
	18179797
Subtract 8870	8870
Date of birth: 27 Sept 1817	18170927

Of course, if you're not mathematically inclined, you can just count backwards (don't forget the leap years).

Noted historian Will Durant once said: "Our knowledge of the past is always incomplete, probably inaccurate, beclouded by ambivalent evidence and biased historians, and perhaps distorted by our own patriotic or religious partisanship. Most history is guessing, the rest is prejudice."

LIBRARIES - MUSEUMS

VIRGINIA STATE ARCHIVES

The Virginia State Archives will close this summer for the remainder of 1996. They are moving to new quarters two blocks away on Broad Street in Richmond. The inner-Library loan service has already shut down and the remainder will close very soon. Do not plan a trip to the Virginia Archives until you confirm they are moved and open for business. Their toll free number is 888-LVA-1966,

TEXAS STATE LIBRARY

Duplicates of books in the genealogy collection of the Texas State Library are available on interlibrary loan to libraries, archives, and genealogical and historical societies. The Texas State Library will NOT loan books to individuals; requests must be made by a local librarian using a standard ALA Interlibrary Loan Form. Books are available for four weeks, limited to two requests per patron, four per library per week.

SOUTHWEST ARKANSAS REGIONAL ARCHIVES

The archives collects and preserves regional materials such as family histories, journals, newspaper files, letters, scrapbooks, manuscript collections, early post office records, and rare books relating to the counties of Columbia, Howard, Lafayette, Little River, Miller, Nevada, Ouachita, Pike, Polk, Sevier, Union and Hempstead. This area was significant long before the Louisiana Purchase because of its Caddo Indian culture and because of the Red River which brought the early explorers, settlers and planters from other Southern states. The Southwest Trail, the main road through Louisiana Territory to Texas, went through Washington, AR. Located 1/2 mile west of the courthouse on Hwy. 195, Washington, AR.

THE OLD INDEPENDENCE REGIONAL MUSEUM

A museum planned for the 12 counties once part of the original Independence Co. will be housed in an historic building in Batesville, AR. Truly regional, it will tell the story of the peoples who roamed, settled and developed the present counties of Independence, Izard, Jackson, White, Marion, Poinsett, Fulton, Woodruff, Sharp, Baxter, Stone and Cleburne. Objects of historical significance will be stored in a climate-controlled room. Gifts or short-term loan items will be considered when the building is completed. The museum's goal is to provide a facility for research so complete that visitors or scholars will no longer have to wander from courthouse to library, from college to newspaper office to gather data. Complete information can be obtained by writing The Old Independence Regional Museum, P.O. Box 4506, Batesville, AR 72503. Projected opening date is late fall 1997.

SMYRNA BAPTIST CHURCH
ATLANTA, CASS CO., TEXAS
CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION 1882-1982

Originally named Smyrna Baptist Church of Christ, later Smyrna Missionary Baptist Church of Christ, presently Smyrna Baptist Church, it was organized Aug. 9, 1882 and met in a log school house on land later known as the Audle D. GLASS place.

The charter members were: Brethren: J. H. BURTON, L. BLAKEY, S. E. JACKSON, J. A. BURTON, J. C. TAYLOR; Sisters: S. P. BURTON, M. E. HAM, M. A. M. JACKSON, M. E. BURTON and Mary YANCEY. Elders N. PORTERFIELD, J. W. ERWIN and J. F. McCCLUNG constituted the presbytery.

Nelson PORTERFIELD, Smyrna's first pastor (1882-1887), was born in 1815 in Madison Co. GA and ordained to the ministry in Sweetwater Baptist Church of Talapoosa Assn. in Cobb Co. GA on May 9, 1851. In 1832 he married Neety Caroline DICKSON who bore him 3 sons and 3 daughters. They came as pioneers to Cass Co. in 1855.

At Smyrna's worship time, the men took their seats on the left side of the entrance, and the women on the right side of the entrance, and this strict separation is evidenced by the clerk's records which lists the male members on the left and the female members on the right. The women kept silent during church services (First Timothy.)

Early members are shown as they appeared in the original book of minutes:

At the time of the centennial celebration, the oldest member was Martha Kansas WALTERS ENDSLEY, who was near 94 years of age. Born in Arkansas October 10, 1888 to Henderson WALTERS and Josephine COTHREN WALTERS, she was married March 11, 1906 to Joseph Edgar (Edd) ENDSLEY. "Kanse" and Edd were the parents of Opal (Mrs. Velmer) GLASS, Connie (Roscoe) BAUCUM, Ineva (Mrs. Edwin) TAYLOR, and Harper ENDSLEY.

By the second half century, church membership totaled 170 with a Sunday School enrollment of 137. Bro. B. H. DODD was pastor at that time.

CHURCH STRUCTURES

The first church was built in 1885, a rough-lumber, one-room structure lighted by lamps or lanterns, warmed by a wood-burning heater. The nursery was a patchwork quilt laid on the floor.

Plans were made to relocate in 1901 on property across the road and nearer the cemetery. It was also a one-room frame building.

The growing church had reached a membership of 290 in 1940, and money-raising campaigns enabled them to construct a larger church with Sunday School rooms, which is the present building.

With contributions, and free labor, after materials were paid for there was a balance of $18.46. This was almost enough to pay Pastor T. F. COOPER's salary which was $20.00 a week. Annex wings have been added, church parsonages built, a library, and additional improvements have been made.

SMYRNA CEMETERY

The cemetery lies adjacent to the church and has been in existence since the early formative years of the church. The oldest grave is thought to be that of Martha Elizabeth TAYLOR; the second oldest was Baby SMITH, the infant sister of Allen Colby SMITH. Other early graves listed in the cemetery survey are those of a Baby DECKARD, Mary E. TRIMBLE, William Richard HAYGOOD and Joseph ENDSLEY, all of whom died before 1900.

KEEPER OF THE HOUSE

Many will be shocked to find
When the day of judgement nears,
That there's a special place in Heaven
Set aside for volunteers.

Furnished with big recliners,
Satin couches, and footstools
Where there's no committee chairmen
Group leaders or car pools.

No eager team that needs a coach,
No bazaar and no bake sale,
There will be nothing to staple,
Not one thing to fold or mail.

Telephone lists will be outlawed,
But a finger snap will bring
Cool drinks and gourmet dinners
Rare treats fit for a king.

You ask, "Who'll serve these privileged few
And work for all their worth?"
Why, all those who reaped the benefits
And not once volunteered on earth!

THE STERNE-HOYA HOUSE
Nacogdoches, TX 79961
ADOLPHUS STERNE
1801-1852

JOSEPH von der HOYA
1811-1896

Built circa 1830 by Nicholas Adolphus Sterne
for his bride, Eva Catherine Rosine RUFF, it is the oldest on-site dwelling in the city of Nacogdoches, and the only one dating from before the Texas Revolution.

Among the home's distinguished guests were:

Sam HOUSTON, Texas Revolutionary Commander, first Texas
President, and the first United States Senator from Texas, was baptized a Catholic with Mrs. Sterne as his godmother in this house where he visited and boarded.

Davy CROCKETT, hero of the Alamo, spent a fortnight here in early 1836.

Chief BOWLES of the Cherokee Indians signed a peace treaty in the house, promising that his braves would not join the Mexicans against the army of Texas during the Revolution.

One of the two volunteer companies of New Orleans Greys, recruited and armed by Adolphus STERNE in New Orleans for the Army of Texas, were entertained here in November of 1835, at a banquet given by STERNE and citizens of Nacogdoches. Most of these men died with FANNIN at Goliad and TRAVIS at the Alamo, their flag becoming the famous "Flag of the Alamo."

In 1869, Mrs. STERNE sold the home to Joseph von der HOYA, a German immigrant who settled in Nacogdoches about 1836. The home and grounds were given to the City of Nacogdoches in 1858
by Joseph HOYA's granddaughters, Mrs. Clara HOYA GRAY and Mrs.
Jennie HOYA MAST, as a shrine to the memory of Adolphus STERNE and as a site for the city library. The Nacogdoches Hoya
Memorial Library now includes the Jewel NORWOOD TILFORD
Children's Collection and the Texana Collection. The house is a Texas Historic Landmark, and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

A practice sometimes followed by some State Legislatures when redistricting is called gerrymandering, after Elbridge GERRY, the Governor of Massachusetts in 1812, when Essex County's senatorial election districts were drawn to make sure his party's candidate was elected. The map that resulted looked like a salamander. One of the critics called it a gerrymander and the name stuck.

GENEALOGIST'S NIGHTMARE

*I started out calmly, tracing my tree,
To find if I could find the makings of me.
And all that I had was Great Grandfather's name,
Not knowing his wife or from where he came.*

*I chased him across a long line of states,
And came up with pages and pages of dates.
When all put together, It made me forlorn,
Proved poor Great Grandfather had never been born.*

*One day I was sure the truth I had found,
Determined to turn this whole thing upside down.
I looked up the record of one Uncle John,
But then found the old man to be younger than his son.*

*Then when my hopes were fast growing dim,
I came across records that must have been him.
The facts I collected made me quite sad,
Dear Old Great Grandfather was never a Dad.*

*I think someone is pulling my leg,
I'm not at all sure I wasn't hatched from an egg.
After hundreds of dollars I've spent on my tree,
I can't help but wonder if I'm really me!*
