Dear Friends of Genealogy:

We have been working on the Centuries Memorial Cemetery project for many years. We are getting very close to completing this project and ready to go to press. I want to thank all of the members who have volunteered time and effort for this project. It appears that the cemetery will be published in two volumes.

We are copying the Bossier Parish WWI Draft Registration for inclusion in The Journal. The first installment should appear in this quarterly. I request that members volunteer to copy a letter of the alphabet on this project. Please give me a call if you have the urge to help. It will probably take at least a year and a half to publish the entire draft registration. The WWI Draft Registration is a good record for African American genealogy.

We have planned a series of beginner genealogy classes for each Saturday in September. The October meeting we will have a special speaker to present a program. Please watch for more on these beginner classes. I believe that these classes will be such that everyone will benefit by attending them. Please support our group by attending as many of the weekly classes as you can!

We need to have quality programs each month to make the monthly meeting a true learning experience for our members and visitors. Our goal is that members really look forward to each meeting in order to pick up nuggets of research information. If you have an idea for a program would you please contact Laura Duffy or me.

We need to build our membership. Quality programs will help achieve this objective. I request that each member invite a friend, acquaintance or workmate to our beginner genealogy classes as well as to our regular monthly meetings. Let's build membership!

Thank you for being a Friend of Genealogy.

Ben Achee President

ASK Miss Ima G* Bugg

* Genealogy

Miss Ima G* Bugg, our own unique, lighthearted research associate, has agreed to try to answer our questions and give us some research clues. If you are confused and in need of help, drop her a line. If she can't help you, maybe some of our readers can. Send your questions/comments to: Miss Ima G* Bugg, Friends of Genealogy, Inc., P. O. Box 17835, Shreveport, LA 71138-0835.

Dear Miss Bugg: I am overrun with quarterly publications from various genealogical organizations. My local library already has all of them but I really hate to throw them away. Any ideas?

Dear Overrun: Oh, please DO NOT, I repeat, DO NOT throw those old quarterlies away! Most societies will take them back. Don't worry if you don't have complete sets; they will remove your name and address, combine them with other donations, and donate full sets to the collections at public or genealogical libraries.

[Editors Note: Friends of Genealogy always welcomes donations of old quarterlies, both ours and those of other organizations. We will make sure they receive a good home!]

Dear Miss Bugg: I am so confused about the Shreve Memorial Library's new card catalog! And they named it "iBistro" – that sounds more like a sidewalk café!

Dear Confused: They won't serve you sandwiches or coffee, but it's not all that bad; like everything else, it just takes some getting used to. Do you know that you can access the catalog from your home computer? You can save a lot of time at the library by doing a little homework first. Here's what you do:

- 1. Go to <www.shreve-lib.org>
- 2. Near the top of the page, click on the blue word <here> to get to the catalog.
- 3. Click on the down arrow to select the type of information you want search for: choose word or phrase, author, title, subject, series, or periodical title.
- 4. Then, based on your search choice, type in a name or subject.
- 5. Then, select "ALL" to search the entire Shreve Memorial Library system or use the drop-down arrow to select a specific library branch.
- 6. Then, click on the "Search" button and Voila! You (hopefully) get results.

Dear Miss Ima: I am doing some research in Avoyelles Parish, Louisiana and am interested finding some death information from the late 1800s. Can you help me?

Dear Miss Lucky You!: It just so happens that Ellen Dauzat has submitted extractions of obituaries from the Marksville Bulletin for the period 4 Jan 1879 through 9 Jul 1887 to the Central Louisiana Genealogical Society and they have published them in their most recent Quarterly, Volume 17, Number 2 (Spring 2003). Happy hunting!

Dear Ima G* Bugg: Is there an easy way to find out if something has been published before I go searching at cemeteries and courthouses?

Dear Searcher: Have you ever met PERSI? That stands for Periodical Source Index and can help you locate articles from hundreds of genealogical publications. We once relied on this index in book form, but now, like everything else, PERSI is live on computer (for a fee, of course). But go to the Genealogy Department at Shreve Memorial Library; you can access the file on their computers for free – Our Tax Dollars At Work!

To access PERSI on the library's computer: Click on the "Other Databases" icon on the desktop. Then, scroll down to "Gale Group Databases" and click on it. Then, scroll down to "Ancestry Plus" and click on it. Then, scroll down to "Periodicals and Newspapers." Click on "Periodical Source Index" and there you are!

You enter criteria to search on a surname or locality. For instance, in the U.S. Locality Section, you can select all U.S. States or one specific state, a county (if desired), an article title or keyword (if desired), and a record type (such as all records, biography, cemeteries, census, church, land, military, obituaries, probate, vital, voter, wills, and several others. Enter your desired criteria and click on "Search." Contact information is also given for the various periodicals from which the articles are indexed.

Dear Miss Ima: I am trying to place several people between the years 1880 and 1900. Without an 1890 census available, is there some way I can track people without going to every courthouse between their locations in 1880 and 1900?

Dear Tracker: You've got the right idea but you're spending too much time on the road. Remember the old adage: "The only two things certain in life are death and taxes." Every parish and county had a tax assessor and every year, he prepared a listing of all taxable persons in his area; you didn't have to own land to be included as in many places taxpayers were assessed a poll tax and tax on personal property. Many of these records have been microfilmed. Our organization has donated the microfilmed records for most northwest Louisiana parishes to Shreve Memorial Library where they can be found in the Genealogy Collection at the Broadmoor Branch; check with the genealogy librarian to borrow microfilm for other counties and parishes. Also, we have published a listing in The Journal for Webster Parish (1889) and are beginning a listing for Jackson Parish (1890) in this issue.

Jackson Parish, Louisiana 1890 Tax Assessment Roll

This list has been transcribed from the microfilmed records, a copy of which will be donated to the Genealogy Collection at the Shreve Memorial Library in Shreveport, Louisiana. The handwritten records seemed to be in good condition at the time of filming, but as with all records of this type, they are difficult to read in many places. As a result, this transcription will contain errors, but it is hoped that this information will assist those researchers with Jackson Parish ties. As always, please verify this information with the microfilmed records.

These records list the taxpayer's name and quantity of land as well as the values of land, livestock, and personal property. We are listing here only the taxpayer's name and amount of land shown, along with a notation for non-white persons. A blank field in the land column indicates that the taxpayer is listed for poll tax and/or personal property tax and does not own land. This transcription will be done in a series form over the next several issues.

The Grandpa King House and Mile Branch Settlement

By Danielle Harrison Neal

Wendy King Henderson is justly proud of her Dad, William Roy King. Roy King of Bogalusa, Washington Parish, made a promise to his father, James S. King, that he would do his best to preserve the King farm and dogtrot house built in 1830 near Clifton, LA. The pioneer home had been kept in the family for 160 years and when James S. King died in 1990, Roy set about making plans for the home. His father would have been content, for his widow, Bessie Warren King and her children, Roy King and Dorothy King Tickler, donated the dogtrot house and accompanying barn to Mile Branch Settlement in Washington Parish.

Mile Branch Settlement is a historic exhibit of pioneer-era structures gathered from all over Washington Parish, moved to this site, restored, and furnished. It is located adjacent to the Washington Parish fair grounds and during the parish's free fair each fall descendants of the pioneers dress in period clothing and demonstrate various arts and crafts in the Settlement.

The Grandpa King dogtrot was built by Thomas Henry Iverson King, one of the early settlers of Washington Parish. Tree-length logs were cut, hilltop shapes, and used as floor joists. The flooring was notched on the bottom at contact points with joists to reduce floor thickness, yet maintain a smooth surface on top. Distinguishing the King house as a "fine home" are its early glass sash windows, which appear to be original. Twelve large native sandstone rocks were used to raise sills off the ground and for leveling. The front and back Chamfered post porches were tied to the main structure with full-length one half notched logs that traversed the full width of the house.

The ceiling joists were hand-hewn down from round logs to 5" X 5" square beams used over the exposed ceilings of the porches. The original roof was constructed of hand-split shingles. Each room had an intricately worked Federal style fireplace mantle. In one of the rooms, on the mantle-piece, the initials T I K were carved from wood strips. The attic and the area above the dogtrot were floored and used as a sleeping loft.

The kitchen was separate from the house with a raised walkway between. The house has never been connected to electricity or running water. Two dug wells near the kitchen and near the barn supplied water.

Thomas King's barn was built about 1835. It is 64 feet long and 30 feet wide. The barn has two long ox stalls and one log crib, all situated abut seven feet apart and about 13' X 14'. The stalls were used to house oxen and have much lower doors than those usually found in a stable. Each stall has a hollowed out one-half log feed trough and hayrack. The ceiling over the stables was floored and the loft area was used to store hay. A narrow stairwell inside the east stable gave access to the loft.

The corncrib has a wooden floor supported by log sills and floor joists. The enormous pitched roof extends approximately ten feet beyond the stalls and corncrib on the three sides. Two large feed troughs were located along the back of the barn. A small milking pen was used as a buggy storage shed. The barn back and both ends were closed with board sidings and had dirt flooring.

Other historic structures in Mile Branch Settlement include:

The Knight Cabin, built 1857 by George and Martha Knight, is listed in the National Historical Register and the Louisiana Division of Historical Preservation. Mrs. Griffith Johnson and the Franklinton Garden Club were instrumental in having this cabin moved to its present location in time for the American bicentennial in 1976. It was the first structure in what has since become the Mile Branch Settlement.

The Branch Corn Crib, built about 1875 by Claiborn Blackwell, is one-half of an early dogtrot type barn. The property originally settled by Nathan Blackwell remained in their family until sometime in the 20th Century when it was sold to Austin Branch. The corn crib was donated to the Settlement in 1976 by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ray Branch.

The Kemp Fence, built by Andrew Kemp in 1902, is a split rail fence. It was donated by the Emerson Kemp family in 1976.

Sylvest-Magee Cabin, is a combination of two homes. The Sylvest cabin built by Nehemiah Sylvest was built about 1880-81 while the family of five children lived in the dirt-floored smokehouse. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Sylvest donated the Sylvest cabin. The Magee cabin, built about 1910 by Marcus Magee, is a board and batton structure of long-leaf pine with exposed boards on the inside and covered on the outside with narrow strips of lumber. It was donated in 1977 by Saddie and Ethel Magee in memory of their brother, Jacob Nathaniel Magee.

Mount Herman School, built in 1885 was a one-room frame building with a stage where boys sat on one side, girls on the other. It was built on land donated by David Jackson Ott. Subsequently primary and music rooms were added, and the primary room is the only remaining structure of the school. It was donated to the Settlement by the Denman Ott estate in 1978.

Half Moon Bluff Baptist Church, a replica of one of the Louisiana's oldest Protestant churches, commemorates the congregation organized October 12, 1812, admitted into the Mississippi Baptist Association. The original building was situated on the Bogue Chitto River 4 ½ miles north of Franklinton at Half Moon Bluff. This replica was built in 1978 with the aid and support of the Louisiana Baptist Convention, the Southeast Louisiana Baptist District and the Washington Parish Baptist Association.

Bankston General Store, built in the late 1890s by Claudia Bankston and was located 10 miles northeast of Franklinton. At his death, the store was the property of his brother, Leon V. Bankston and was donated to the Settlement in 1978 by his heirs.

Warnerton Post Office, located within the Bankston General Store, dates back to 1900. Isaiah Pigott served as first Postmaster, followed by John Warner and Mrs. Stella Bickham Warner. The post office was closed August 1954. It was donated to the Settlement in 1978 by Mrs. May Ella Brumfield Warner and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Warner, Jr.

The Burrel Jones Cabin, built 1885, is a one-room structure resting on huge split wood blocks. The cabin measures approximately 19 X 20 feet and was built for Burrell Jones by a Mr. Thomas. Burrel Jones and his wife, Estelle Talley, made their home here. The cabin was donated by Mrs. Freeda Jones Kaylor and Earl Jones, grandchildren of the original owners.

The Richardson Building, constructed of logs about 1879, was used as a workshop, storage area or tool shed. It was donated by J. Alton Richardson and his family one hundred years later in 1979.

Stafford Syrup Mill and Iron Kettle, dating to at least 1900, are typical of implements used in syrup making. The iron kettle measures 4 feet in diameter by 2 feet deep and weighs 250 pounds empty. These were donated to the Settlement by Mrs. Tessie Stafford Pope in 1979.

Bankston Blacksmith Shop was built in the early 1890's by Claudia Bankston and was located on the Old Holmesville Road about 10 miles northwest of Franklinton. The shop includes many original furnishings such as the bellows and forge, anvil and block, grinding stone, old benches and other small tools. The shop was donated in 1980 by the heirs of Leon V. Bankston.

The Pigott Cabin was built about 1854 on land given to Nathaniel and Mary Ann Pigott by her parents, Travis and Jane Rester Thigpen. It measures 38 X 40 feet including front and back porches and was occupied by the Pigott family until 1924. The cabin and several original furnishings were donated to the Settlement by Thomas Hamilton Pigott and his children, William Thomas Pigott and Betty Pigott Hunt in 1982.

The Johnson Cabin was originally built by Kinza Johnson and his wife, Mary Jane Richardson, about 1850 some two miles south of Enon. In 1882 the cabin was moved and later it was moved a second time, to a location west of the Bogue Chitto River Road. Through the years it was occupied by the Johnson, Jones, Knight, Lee, Hunt, Varnado and Watson families. It was donated to the Settlement in 1981 by Mrs. Wanda Jones Watson and with the assistance of W. A. Hargrove and students at Franklinton High School it was dismantled and moved again.

The Grist Mill was donated in 1980 by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Knight and situated next to the Branch Corn Crib. It was one of three mills previously used by Murphy Bateman Building Supply. It was ordered from Meadows Mill Co. of Murfreesboro, TN in the early 1940's. The mill was refurbished for the 1983 Fair and ground corn into fresh corn meal, for which demand exceeded supply.

Ben's Ford Kitchen was constructed by Morgan Adams and was located in the Ben's Ford Community near Bogalusa, LA. It was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rogers III and moved to the Settlement in 1983. The kitchen was complete with all its furnishings, including an up-off-the-ground attached chicken coup.

The Fleming Barn, approximately 30 feet square, was constructed of cypress logs and is believed to have been built between 1870 and 1890. It was donated in 1985 by Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt A. Fleming, Jr.

The Varnado Corn Crib was built by James Oliver "Barlow" Varnado in the early 1900's in the Stoney Point Community. It was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morgan in 1987.

The Penton Smokehouse was built in the Bonner Creek Community about 1924 by William C. Penton. Mrs. Fricke and her nieces, Mrs. Byrd and Mrs. Perry, donated it in 1988.

The Buddy Crowe Outhouse provides a glimpse at a necessary feature. Built in 1910 by Johny Edgar Crowe of hand-sawed heart pine, this facility is a two-holer, unique in that the occupants would have sat back-to-back rather than side-by-side. It was donated to the Settlement in 1989 by John K. and Bonnie Waskom.

Fricke Grist Mill was located seven miles south of Franklinton and moved to the Settlement in 1990. Walter Stafford, husband of the late Neva Fricke, donated the mill.

"Bluff" Seal Outhouse was originally located in the San Pedro Community eight miles west of Franklinton. It was donated to the Settlement by J. D. Broadway and his sisters, Dorothy O'Bryant and Joanne Mixon in 1993.

Included in the farm equipment are six two-mule farm wagons that date back to the early 1900s. Manufacturers were Studebaker, Weber, Sears Roebuck, and one is a Civil War military wagon.

A cypress water cistern constructed about 1900 was donated by Clyde Morris of Mt. Hermon.

A 14-foot virgin long-leaf pine stump was found on the property of Judge A. J. Jones in the vicinity of Pigott's Crossing. It was moved to the Settlement in 1993. It is estimated the tree had reached a height of 300 feet and apparently was broken in a storm years before logging operations began in Washington Parish. The stump was moved through the joint efforts of Frank Prisk and the Washington-St. Tammany Electric Cooperative.

The Center for Southeast Louisiana Studies at Southeastern Louisiana University in Hammond chose Mile Branch Settlement as the site to film a docudrama dealing with the West Florida Rebellion of 1810 against Spain that established the short-lived West Florida Republic. The Settlement was also the site of the Burris Family's 80th annual reunion this summer. The authentic structures of the Settlement set it apart as a unique living history exhibit.

How to Wash Clothes

Years ago, a Tennessee grandmother gave a new bride the following recipe for washing clothes. It was found pasted in a scrapbook by Marcia Leavitt of Atlanta. We reprint it here in its original spelling and commend the philosophy contained in it.

1. Bilt fire in backyard to heat kettle of rain water.

- 2. Set tubs so smoke wont blow in eyes if wind is pert.
- 3. Shave one hole cake of lie soap in bilin water.
- 4. Sort things, make 3 piles.
  1 pile white,
  1 pile colored,
  1 pile work britches and rags.

5. To make starch, stir flour in cool water to smooth, then thin down with bilin water.

6. Take white things, rub dirty spots on board, scrub hard, and then bile. Rub colored don't bile, just rinch and starch.

7. Take things out of kettle with broomstick handle, then rinch, and starch.

- 8. Hang old rags on fence.
- 9. Spread tea towels on grass.
- 10. Pore rinch water in flower bed.
- 11. Scrub porch with hot soapy water.
- 12. Turn tubs upside down.

13. Go put on clean dress, smooth hair with hair combs. Brew cup of tea, drink it and rock a spell and count your blessings.

WWI Draft Registration Card Index Bossier Parish, LA

There were three draft registrations for World War I in which more than 24 million men born between September 13, 1873 and September 12, 1900 registered. Only a small percentage of those registering actually were inducted into service. Not all who served in our military branches participated in this registration, but the compilation of such a large number of male citizens and alien-born men is a useful source of information. This is a particularly good source for tracing African American men.

A typical WWI draft registration card possibly may include the registrant's full name and signature, home address, age, date of birth, citizenship status, occupation, employer's name and address, race, dependents or nearest relative, and physical description. Cards for registrants born between June 6, 1886 and August 24, 1897 may also include birthplace, previous military service, and marital status.

Registration	Date	Men Eligible
First	June 5, 1917	Born between 6/6/1886 and 6/5/1896
Second	June 5, 1918	Born between 6/6/1896 and 6/5/1897
Supplemental	August 24, 1918	Born between 6/6/1897 and 8/24/1897
Third	September 12, 1918	Born between 8/24/1897 and 9/12/1900
	-	Also between 9/13/1873 and 9/12/1887

If you find a person you are interested in and want to obtain a copy of the full registration card, write to Friends of Genealogy, Inc., include a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and a donation to cover copying. This index includes Bossier registrants from all registrations and many are obviously not residents of Bossier Parish, but chose to register there. The series will continue until all who registered in Bossier Parish are listed.

INDEX OF CADDO PARISH SUCCESSIONS

The index of Caddo Parish Succession Suits dating from inception of the parish (1838) to 1879 was begun in the second quarter of 2001 (Vol. XIII, No. 2) and [we thought] completed in the second quarter of 2002 (Vol. XIV, No. 2). But, hooray, more have turned up. The handwritten index and the suits are located in the Caddo parish Courthouse and were transcribed by Joe Slattery, Genealogy Librarian at Shreve Memorial Library in Shreveport, LA. The lower suit numbers are the earlier suits filed. Our sincere thanks go to Joe for all his work making possible the publication of this index.

Death of a Prominent Merchant - The New Orleans papers are pained to announce the death of John Watt, Esq., an old and eminent merchant of that city, one whose name was the synonym of probity and honor. Died August 10, 1868, at the residence of his brother, in Rusk County, Texas, Orlando McFarland, son of Major B. F. McFarland, deceased. The subject of this brief notice was engaged in business in Shreveport previous to the attack of sickness, which terminated his life. Kind and anxious friends thought that rest and repose from business would soon restore his health; he went to his loving and beloved relatives in Texas, where everything was done that affectionate attention could suggest, but with benefit. The skill of the most eminent physicians was baffled. He continued to decline, and in a few short months he died, calmly and fully engaged in the morning of his life. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was ever ready to help advance its cause. He forgot not the poor, the widow, and orphan. He was obedient and respectful to his parents, during their lives - - - - (paper crinkled, unable to read). A Prominent Citizen Passes Away - On Thursday night, April 17, at 9:30 p.m. death claimed one of the widest known and best loved pioneer citizens of Bienville Parish, Mr. J. O. Colbert, Sr., who passed away at his home, at the age of 74, after a brief illness of only a few days, the cause of this demise being heart trouble. Mr. Colbert, who was the son of William W. and Mary Goodson Colbert, came of a prominent Alabama family and was a native of Montgomery County of that state, his parents moving to Louisiana when he was but five years of age. Mr. Colbert spent practically his entire life in this immediate vicinity, with the exception of his period of service in the Confederate Army, and a few years during which he was a resident of Ruston. Mr. Colbert was a student at the noted boys' academy in Mount Lebanon, La., under Colonel Prescott, at the time the Civil War began, and though but 16 years of age immediately made efforts to enlist in the Confederate forces but was refused on account of his youth. The following year, however, he was more successful and enlisted in Captain Gibbs' company at Mount Lebanon, becoming a member of Company E, Fifth Louisiana Cavalry, and being appointed orderly on Colonel Capers' staff, serving through the remaining three years of the conflict with great distinction and making a brilliant record for his personal daring and intrepid spirit. In February, 1869, Mr. Colbert married Miss Fannie Leary, daughter of Major Calvin Leary, of Minden, who still survives her husband. For many years Mr. Colbert was engaged in the hotel business, first at Ruston, then later at Gibsland, and hosts of traveling men throughout this and other states will grieve to learn of the passing of one who was affectionately known by the traveling fraternity, far and wide, as "Uncle Polk," his genial spirit and kindly hospitality being proverbial among all with whom he came in contact. As a citizen he was ever progressive and alert to the best interests of the community and was the instigator and promoter of the movement which resulted in the building of Maple Park, the handsome little square on Front Street, which transformed and unsightly bit of land into a beauty spot, and which will remain as a fitting memorial to the public spirit of its found. In addition to his widow, the deceased is survived by five children, J. P. Colbert Jr., of Hot Springs, Ark., Mrs. Daisy Griswold, of New Orleans, Miss Mattie Morgan Colbert and Mrs. S. M. Oden, of Gibsland, and Will Colbert, of Dallas, but who is at present with the American Army in France. Two sisters, Mrs. Maggie Potts, of Dallas, and Mrs. E. M. Potts, of Stamford, Tex., and two brothers, A. J. Colbert, of Mt. Lebanon, and Augustus Colbert, of Welsh, La., also survive. Many friends and relatives from Shreveport, Dubberly, Ruston, Mt. Lebanon and other points were present for the funeral and a great quantity of exquisite floral offerings from different parts of the state testified to the high esteem and affection in which the deceased was held. The funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Mount Lebanon Cemetery, the remains being laid to rest with the rites of the Episcopal Church. [Bienville Parish, Bienville Democrat, April 24, 1919]

Rev. J. T. Sailes, of Delhi, conducted the funeral service of Mr. S. S. Cariker last Thursday afternoon. His presence was a great comfort to the family in their sorrow as he has been a close friend for so many years. Rev. Sailes had just been attendance of the Red River Presbytery which convened at Shreveport and left here for his home in Delhi. [Bienville Parish, Bienville Democrat, April 24, 1919]

Democrat, but we would like to add just a few words as a tribute to the life and memory of an old Confederate Veteran. Mr. Cariker, was one of the first to enlist in the war of the "Lost Cause," leaving school for the battlefield and saw four years of service in the war between the states. He was wounded at the Battle of Gettysburg so serious that he was left for several days, without attention; so sure that he was going to die, but his strong constitution and wonderful will power prevailed. He has never been very strong since that dreadful wound which effected his health. Mr. Cariker has attended every reunion of Confederate Veterans until his increasing feebleness prevented, and was a member and officer until recently, in the Arcadia Camp, U. C. V., when he resigned on account of ill health. Mr. and Mrs. Cariker had been married for 52 years and it was a touching coincident that he passed away on her birthday. May the loving, tender Father, who she trusts comfort her loneliness. [Bienville Parish, Bienville Democrat, April 24, 1919]

Those whose hearts have been made heavy with sorrow, since receiving the sad message about Mr. Lex Shields who was killed in action on the Western Front last October, and have also received uncertain tidings that he was not killed but was captured by the enemy and in a German prison, will feel relieved and a mournful satisfaction in hearing directly fro one who has just returned from France and one who was with Mr. Shields when he passed away. The is the message Mrs. Shields had: "He was killed in first battle, soon after the battle begun. Died immediately, never speaking after he was shot. Three of his friends buried him on the banks of the Marne River, 65 miles from Parish, wrapped in a blanket. Those friends were devoted to him." All honor to our hero boys who are sleeping under the crimson poppies in a land we love. [Bienville Parish, Bienville Democrat, May 15, 1919] To be continued...

Miss Mary Frances White 1884 – 1967 By Danielle Harrison Neal

Mary Frances White would no doubt be surprised to learn she has made an impact on my life. We never met and she did not know my parents or me. Yet she was directly responsible for my purchasing several season's tickets to the Shreveport Symphony. We never know all of the ways in which our life impacts others. Here is the connection between Mary White and me: my good friend, Mrs. Florence Roper, worked as a bookkeeper at The Fashion on McNeill Street. There she met Miss Mary White who invited her to attend symphony concerts. Later, Mrs. Roper would take her daughter, Nan, and me to Community Concerts; and as adults Nan and I have continued to attend symphony concerts.

Nan encouraged me to do some research on Miss Mary White and thus another article was hatched. Mary White was a career girl as was her sister, Susie. Some say they never found a young man good enough to pass muster with their Papa. But what father thinks a prospective son-in-law is an excellent match for his daughter? Zero to none. Nevertheless, a look at Mary's Papa is interesting.

Mary White was the daughter of Benjamin S. White and Lillie LaPlace. Benjamin S. White was a machinist at a foundry at the time she was born in November 1884, but before his marriage he was an engineer on the steamboat J. G. Fletcher. In fact, in the 1882-83 City Directory the entire White Family lived on a boat. Mrs. J. T. Trice, Benjamin's Aunt Mary, and his father, Benjamin M. White, as well as his brother, Gus H. White lived on the Sterling White, a ferry boat on the Red River. Another brother, George W. White, was captain on the steamer J. G. Fletcher. And the eldest brother, Thomas E. White was a pilot on a steamboat. Patriarch Benjamin M. White owned both the Sterling White and a tugboat, Gussie.

The White family is found in the 1880 Census in Shreveport, p. 404A:

And next door is Benjamin M. White's son, George:

George White	Head	Μ	M W 26 LA E	Engineer TN	I TN

It may have been that when Benjamin S. White married Lillie LaPlace he promised to get a landbased job and give up the river boat career. Or, perhaps the 1884 completion of the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific Railway bridge over the Red River was a more deciding factor in his career change. Maud O'Pry's Chronicles of Shreveport states,

Mr. Ben S. White, a resident of Shreveport, and his father bought a lease of the ferry in 1869 and ran the ferry a few years and then built the Sterling White about 1874, after having used a tug boat with barges attached. He says the Sterling White was the first Steam Ferryboat and was under the command of Capt. John Thatcher, doing a brisk business until the V. S. & P. built the railroad bridge in 1884.

An obituary for Capt. John M. Rabun from The Ouachita Telegraph, Saturday, February 16, 1889, states, ". . . continuing at his post as master of the steamboat Sterling White until he was forced to take to his bed about two weeks ago. . ." Hence I conclude the White heirs sold the ferry Sterling White to someone who operated it on the Ouachita River in Monroe. I could find no conveyance records of the Sterling White, and I wonder if steamboat ownership was registered in a different manner from land ownership. I had never thought about this.

Patriarch Benjamin M. White, by act of donation dated March 1, 1883, gave three of his sons his land on the Batture in Shreveport. To George L. White he gave Lot 21, to Benjamin S. White he gave Lots 22 and 23, and to Gus White he gave lots 24 and 25. In Benjamin M. White's succession filed September 20, 1883, Mrs. Mary D. Trice (Benjamin M.'s sister) was named Executrix; his eldest son, Thomas E. White, was given $1,000 and relinquished his rights to the remainder of the estate.

Thomas E. White, eldest son of Benjamin M. White, apparently did not have deep roots in Shreveport. He is enumerated with the family in 1880, mentioned in his father's succession in 1883 and there is no further trace of him here.

Likewise, I was unable to trace George White. In 1880 George White with wife Ida V. White is living next door to the Benjamin M. White family. George White's occupation is that of engineer, so I believe he made his living on a steamboat. Although I was unable to find him in the 1900 Census, as late as 1897 he is giving his power of attorney to Gus H. White to sell lots on Sprague and Lawrence Streets.

Patriarch Benjamin M. White's youngest son, Gus H. White, married Mamie Smith on June 18, 1885 in Shreveport. Randell Hunt was Gus White's surety on the bond. They were married by Rev. W. J. Dickerson Dalzell, D.D., Rector at St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Witnesses were Charles F. Smith, Ben S. White and J. F. Trice.

Gus H. White continued his nautical career and in the 1900 Census, ED 46, Sheet 8, Line 84, he and his family live at 205 Sprague Street. He is the captain of a steamer.

It is not clear from this enumeration just what the relationship may have been between Mamie Smith, wife of Gus White and the two other Smiths in this household. I did no research on this question.

86 Vol. XV, No. 2 (2nd Quarter, 2003)

Benjamin S. White married Lillie LaPlace on January 29, 1884 in Caddo Parish and thereafter worked as a machinist. Rev. J. A. Hackett married Benjamin and Lillie. Benjamin S. White's cousin, J. F. Trice, was surety and witnesses were C. T. Smith, J. F. Trice and J. W. Duncan.

Lillie M. LaPlace was the daughter of a Shreveport physician, Henry L. LaPlace. According to Lillie LaPlace White's later census declarations, Henry LaPlace was of Canadian French descent, but born in VA, and migrated to Alabama where he married his wife, Mary J. Gautman, a native of Alabama. Their marriage was in Macon Co., AL on February 10, 1858. They are found in 1860 in Macon Co., AL with one son, George H., age 1, who died before 1870. In the 1870 Census they are in Montgomery Co., AL. For the 1880 Census they are in Shreveport, p. 391A with the following children:

The 1882-83 Shreveport Directory has Dr. H. L. LaPlace living on Market Street between Milam and Crockett. The 1884-85 Directory lists, in addition to Dr. LaPlace, one son, L. H. [Leon, age 18] who works as a telephone operator and lives at home.

On February 22, 1893, Claudia LaPlace, age 16, married Morgan W. Youngblood, Book 19, p. 787. In the 1894 Directory Morgan Youngblood lists his occupation as Foreman at the union Oil Mill. By this time Dr. LaPlace has died and his widow, Mrs. Mary J. LaPlace lives at 210 Milam where she is a dressmaker. Two sons are also employed, Edward H. LaPlace works as a shipping clerk at the Shreveport Ice & Refrigeration Co. Fred D. LaPlace works at Excelsior Steam Laundry and all make their home with their mother.

Edward H. LaPlace marries Mamie L. Hauser on December 25, 1896. He continues to work at Shreveport Ice & Refrigeration Co. and they make their home at 402 Lawrence Street.

By 1899 Mrs. Mary J. LaPlace lives at 521 Market Street with her eldest son, Chauncey LaPlace [listed with no occupation] and son Fred B. LaPlace who still works at the Excelsior Steam Laundry.

Meanwhile Benjamin S. White and his wife, Lillie LaPlace have two young daughters, Mary Frances, born November 1885 and Lillie M., born November 1888. Benjamin S. White has made several purchases of land, buying Lots 4 and 5 of a 10-acre Lot No. 9 from Mrs. Edith E. Weaver, wife of A. B. Weaver and then Lots 2 through 7, and Lots 43-46 of 10-acre Lot 3 from A. B. Weaver. No municipal address is given for these lots so I cannot locate them. Then he buys the South ½ of the Northwest ¼ of Section 19, Township 18, Range 15. If I read the parish map correctly this 80-acre tract would be on the north side of Cross Lake with the Shreveport-Blanchard Highway running through it just south of Martin Luther King Drive.

The Journal

Apparently the land on which Benjamin S. White established his foundry was that deeded him by his father—lots on the Batture which came to be 224 Strand Street and I believe would today be the site of Harrah's Casino.

Benjamin S. White's foundry becomes a blessing for the LaPlace family. Chauncey LaPlace, after two years of "no occupation" is given a job there. He does well and works his way up to become a machinist. Then Claudia LaPlace's husband, Morgan Youngblood, goes to work for the foundry as a Collector. I do not know how long he worked for the foundry, but in 1920 the Census enumerates the Morgan Youngblood family in New Orleans where he is a conductor for the Pullman Car Works; they have two sons – Charles J. age 16 and Benjamin A. age 12.

Another of Mrs. Mary J. LaPlace's sons, Fred LaPlace, who works for Excelsior Steam Laundry, marries Della Merrell July 9, 1900, Book 27, p. 343.

Tragically, Edward H. LaPlace dies and leaves Mary L. Hauser a widow. Two or three years later, on June 28, 1905, she marries Louis H. Senkosky, a stone cutter who works for Downs & Newman – manufacturers of tombstones and really elaborate cemetery statues.

Mary Trice, sister of patriarch Benjamin M. White, continues as proprietor of a boarding house at 220 Fannin. In 1910 at age 86 she is still going strong and among her boarders are the widow and son of Gus H. White: Mary Smith White, age 39, and Ben White, age 22.

Benjamin S. White and Lillie LaPlace raised their two daughters, Mary and Susie [as Lillie M. came to be known], in the midst of these large families. Their home at 221 Caddo Street backed up to Aunt Mary Trice's boarding house at 220 Fannin.

Miss Mary F. White reportedly had a serious beau, but since Papa objected to him, she became a career girl. It would have been easy to slip into the roll of caregiver in such a large family as theirs, but diminutive Miss Mary White chose otherwise. I just imagine it took several years for her to convince her father that working in a business setting would not ruin her life for she was 31 before she held her first job listed in the Shreveport City Directory. She began her career as a secretary and treasurer at her father's foundry. That means that for 13 years she helped her mother in the house, embroidered, read proper books and bided her time. When she was finally allowed to go to work, she must have felt as though she was released from a cage.

The following year, 1916, she is listed as a stenographer at Brenner Plumbing Company, her younger sister, Susie – age 29, is now a student at Draughn's Practical Business College on the  $4^{th}$  Floor in the Majestic Building. Her father has either sold his foundry or closed it, for he is listed as a machinist at Victoria Lumber Company. The White family is now living at 220 Fannin and great aunt Mary D. Trice dies March 17, 1916. As best I can discover, 220 Fannin would be the home for Benjamin S. White, Lillie White, Mary F. White and Susie White for the remainder of their lives, and it was one of the last residential structures in downtown Shreveport to be demolished.

In 1917 Miss Mary F. White is a stenographer for the Saenger Brothers Wholesale and Retail Drug Company. This company is owned by J. H. and A. D. Saenger and is their primary business concern in 1917. In later years they expanded their amusement business and built the Saenger Theater on Milam and The Stand Theater on Louisiana Avenue.

In 1918 Miss Mary White is promoted to bookkeeper at Saenger Bros. And her sister, Miss Susie White, works there also as a clerk. Next year Miss Mary White has been promoted to assistant bookkeeper and Miss Susie White is promoted to stenographer.

By 1921 both Miss Mary and Miss Susie are working as bookkeepers for Saenger Bros. When I investigated the Shreveport Directory again, 1931, Miss Mary White was a bookkeeper for Rosenberg's Shoe Store and Miss Susie is not listed as working. We are now into the Depression, a time when a business would usually not employ two members of one family in order to provide livelihood for two families instead of enriching a singlefamily group. Benjamin S. White, age 75, is still working as a mechanic, but by age 77 he has retired.

In 1932 Miss Mary White, age 48, begins her career with The Fashion at 518 McNeil Street. The next year she is promoted to office manager. Even a medium sized retail store, up until the 1990s, required a sizeable office staff because double-entry bookkeeping was done in ledger books taking data from salesclerks' tickets and invoices. Statements were typed individually, folded, and placed in window envelopes. Payroll reports and tax reports were typed and mailed in to the various governmental offices. Today one clerical worker with a computer can accomplish work that would have required 4 to 5 persons in 1980.

In a conversation with Mr. Bobby Rosenfield, owner of The Fashion, he relayed that his father could not have managed without Miss Mary White. Though a small lady, she was, in his words "tough as a boot." She ran a ship-shape office. As long as an employee did their work properly, there was no problem, but she did not tolerate carelessness or laziness.

Miss Mary White was well respected by the Rosenfields, was almost family for them, and continued to work as office manger at The Fashion until her retirement. She was a refined lady who dressed conservatively and always walked to work as she lived not more than 7 blocks from any of her downtown employments. A pioneer in the workplace as a woman, she kept her job throughout the Depression, and once entrusted with responsibility, she fulfilled a management position remarkably well.

Voices In My Heart

It was the first day of census and all through the land Each pollster was ready... a black book in hand. He mounted his horse for a long, dusty ride, His books and his quills were tucked close by his side.

A long dusty ride down a road barely there, Toward the smell of fresh bread wafting up through th air. The woman was tired, with lines on her face, And wisps of brown hair she tucked back into place.

She gave him some water as they sat at the table, And she answered his questions the best she was able. He asked her of children. Yes, she had quite a few, The oldest was twenty, the youngest not two.

She held up a toddler with cheeks round and red, His sister, she whispered, was napping in bed. She noted each person who lived there with pride, And she felt the faint stirrings of the wee one inside.

He noted the sex, the color, the age, The marks from the quill soon filled up the page. At the number of children, she nodded her head, And he saw her lips quiver for the ones that were dead.

The places of birth she "never forgot"... Was it Carolina, or Virginia, or Kentucky or not? They came from Scotland, on that she was clear, But she wasn't quite sure just how long they'd been here.

They spoke of employment, of schooling and such. They could read some and write some . . . though really not much. When the questions were answered, his job there was done, So he mounted his horse and he rode toward the sun.

> We can almost imagine his voice loud and clear, "May God bless you all for another ten years." Now picture a time warp...it's now you and me, As we search for the people on our family tree.

We squint at the census, and scroll down so slow, As we search for that entry from long, long, ago. Could they only imagine on that long ago day, That the entries they made would affect us this way.

If they knew, would they wonder at the yearning we feel, And the searching that makes them so increasingly real? We can hear if we listen, the words they impart, Through their blood in our veins and their voice in our heart.
