The GENIE

WANTED: AN ARTIST - As permanent masthead for our quarterly publication, we want a sketch of a Genie appearing from a lamp, announcing the name of the bulletin. CAN YOU HELP US? Perhaps a sketch of the Ark-La-Tex map as background to the Genie would be appropriate!

THE PRESIDENTS PAGE: GREETINGS:

MISS JOSEPHINE MILLER IS THE WINNER OF THE CONTEST TO NAME THE PUBLICATION OF THE ARK-LA-TEX GENEALOGICAL ASSOCIATION. Her choice was Genie. We will strive to make the publication as helpful to your genealogy search as Aladdin's Genie of the magic lamp. Thank you, Miss Miller.

Second place winners are Mrs. Cleo D. Schoolfield and Mr. Waldo Moore. Mrs. Marguerite Nation and Miss Margie Sue Norton are the third place winners. Books will be placed in the Genealogy Room in the name of the winners.

The decision was difficult, since so many of you turned in such excellent ideas for the name.

THE SUMMER WORKSHOP WILL BE HELD AUGUST 11 - 12, 1967. The meetings are to be held in the Genealogy Room of the Shreve Memorial Library. Please check the last page of the Genie for the program. There will not be a formal luncheon meeting Saturday, but the Big Chain Cafeteria (across the street from the library) will reserve a private dining room for the genealogist who wish to eat there and get acquainted. Coffee will be served in the Genealogy Room. Due to the efforts of Miss Elizabeth Miller, Miss Josephine Miller and Randy Tiller souvenirs and favors will be given to participants by local merchants and businesses. A door prize has been made available through the courtesy of M.L. Bath and Company.

However, all of this is very incidental to the worth of the workshop. We URGE you to attend that you might hear our speaker, Jane Clancey Huddleston.

Mrs. James Huddleston is the president of the Genealogy Society of Mesquite, Texas. She was one of the founders of this active group and the first president as well as the first editor of its bulletin. (Available here)

Jane is an extremely versatile person. She has published several musical arrangements for choral groups. In her role as mother of three children and wife of a psychiatrist, Jane was named Homemaker of the week by her city. She teaches voice lessons, plays the organ for her church, and is active in the P.T.A. In addition to genealogy, she is interested in stamp collecting, antique collecting, sewing and weaving.

Jane is of a local family, attended high school here as well as Centenary before taking her degree at Baylor.

We urge all of you to attend this workshop and to bring a friend.

This issue is double the usual size since length of the new books in the Genealogy Room was so long and since we feel the need to publish the Caddo Conveyence Records, which had been started by the Louisiana Register but never completed. These records are being run here and to the completion of the task.

SEE YOU AT THE WORKSHOP NEXT MONTH !!

David E. Washburn, Vice-Pres.

For your convenience and ours, would you please fill in the blank below and mail it to us.

REPORT FROM THE GENEALOGY ROOM OF SHREVE MEMORIAL

YES! Virginia, we do believe in Santa Claus! In fact, we have had Christmas in June here in the Genealogy Room at Shreve Memorial Library. Two new Recordak microfilm readers, a microfilm cabinet, a new card catalogue, nearly a thousand rolls of microfilmed Federal census population schedules, and 146 book titles (204 volumes) have been added to our collection. We have added several periodicals through our exchange program with other societies.

The Federal census population schedules for 1790, 1800, and 1810 are now complete and available for use in the room, either in book form or on microfilm.

The following microfilmed census schedules are now complete:

Alabama -- 1830 through 1880	Mississippi -- 1820 thru 1880
Arkansas -- 1830 through 1880	Missouri -- 1840 thru 1860
Connecticut -- 1800 thru 1820	New Jersey -- 1830 thru 1840
Delaware -- 1800 thru 1830	New York -- 1800 thru 1810
Florida -- 1830 thru 1880	North Carolina -- 1800 thru 1860
Georgia -- 1820 thru 1880	Ohio -- 1820 thru 1830
Illinois -- 1820 thru 1840	Pennsylvania -- 1800 thru 1820
Indiana -- 1820 thru 1840	Rhode Island 1800 thru 1810
Kentucky -- 1810 thru 1880	South Carolina -- 1800 thru 1860
Louisiana -- 1810 thru 1880	Tennessee -- 1810 thru 1860
Maine -- 1800 -- 1810	Texas -- 1850 thru 1880 (eastern counties)
Maryland -- 1800 thru 1850	Vermont -- 1800 - 1810
Massachusetts -- 1800 thru 1810	Virginia -- 1810 thru 1860.

Without the interest and support of these people and groups, our library would not show the fine growth that it has in the past years. Again, we thank you.

With the addition of two new readers new rules must be made for the use of them. BALL POINT PENS MAY NOT BE USED IN THE GENEALOGY ROOM. This ink will not come off the screen of the readers. A TWO HOUR time limit has been set. If others are waiting, please observe this rule.
 DO NOT THREAD THE MACHINE UNLESS GIVEN PERMISSION TO DO SO BY THE LIBRARIAN IN CHARGE. It is possible to damage a machine, we would rather you did not take this responsibility.

There are also certain rules that we would like to ask you to observe in using the room and collection.
 1. Unless you are sure that you are replacing a book to its proper place, leave it on the table or the top of the bookcase for the librarian to shelve. A MISPLACED BOOK IS A LOST BOOK!
 2. DO NOT MARK IN THE BOOKS.
 3. We would like for you to sign the Register.
 4. Eating, drinking, or smoking is prohibited. The hallway maybe used for this purpose. Ashtrays, chairs, and cokemachines are available there.

We encourage you and your friends to make use of our ever growing collection. We are always pleased to have you come in and spend the day with us.

ARKANSAS RECORDS

Once again we are indebted to Mrs. Ann Andrews of Magnolia, Arkansas for these cemetery records. She has indeed done a fine job and we are grateful that she shares her material so willingly.
