Pennsylvania Historical Junto, Washington, D. C., 1947-54.
The American Society of Genealogists, 1961-64.
- Chairman: Board for Certification of Genealogists, since 1964.
- Editor: National Genealogical Society Quarterly, 1957-62.
Genealogical Research: Methods and Sources (Published in 1960 by The American Society of Genealogists; now in its 4th printing.)
- Fellow: The American Society of Genealogists.
National Genealogical Society.
The Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania.
- Member: Pennsylvania German Society
Society of the Descendants of the Colonial Clergy
Columbia Historical Society, Washington, D. C.
Ohio Genealogical Society
Ontario Genealogical Society
York Pioneer and Historical Society, Toronto, Ontario
- and others -
- Lecturer: The Institute of Genealogical Research, The American University,
Washington, D. C., since 1950.
The Institute of Genealogy, Samford University, Birmingham,
Alabama, since 1962.
- Author: Of numerous articles in historical and genealogical periodicals published in the United States, Canada, England and Germany.
- Participated in the World Conference on Records and Seminars on Genealogy, Salt Lake City, Utah, August 1969.
- Participated in the Seminars conducted by the Ontario Genealogical Society, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada, 1964-66.

This is the man who will lecture at our Fifth Annual Workshop, 15 May 1971.

Don't miss hearing him on his first visit to the Ark-La-Tex area. The program for the meeting and other details follow.

REVIEW

Regular meetings for January, February and March were well attended. See pages 6, 7, 8 & 9 for "Guide to Materials Available in the Genealogy Room of Shreve Memorial Library", subject of the series of lectures presented at these meetings.

Our membership now totals 190, including 16 who have not paid 1971 dues, but we hope they will get them in before March 31. A complete roster will be published in the July Genie. Our goal is to have 200 members by that time.

Response to the plea for Queries has been most generous. Our little "Information Please" has recovered from his malnutrition, is growing like a weed, with an insatiable appetite, so don't fail to send in your queries for future issues. Our Exchange List is being revised and enlarged, and with the increase in circulation your Queries will reach many more places and people. This means you will have a much greater potential for success with all your Queries.

Several members sent the source of the little book on filing. WHO'S WHERE IN YOUR GENEALOGICAL RECORDS - A Filing & Finding System by J. R. Gobble, is available from Everton Publishers, Box 368, Logan, Utah 84321, for $1.50 postpaid. WHAT TO SAY IN YOUR GENEALOGICAL LETTERS - Do's & Don'ts in Genealogical Correspondence by J. R. Gobble is also available from Everton at the same price.

The Beginner's Class in Genealogical Research started at Shreve Memorial Library with 17 enrolled on 1 March, to run for eight weeks, 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. on Monday evenings. Mrs. Margery Wright and Benn Achee are doing an excellent job of teaching the basic techniques of research, and we hope to schedule another class later this year to cover more advanced research.

Printed copies of the new Charter and By-Laws are available to members who request them. Copies of "the mini genie" enclosed with this issue are for you to pass on to anyone interested in our Association, or to post on the bulletin board of your library or meeting room. Do your friends a favor and let them know what we are doing.

Plans for the Workshop are going well. See page 3 & 4 for the program and data on Mr. Milton Rubincam who will conduct the lectures. Registration forms are on page 49. Please send your registrations in early.

PREVIEW

The educational programs will continue for our regular meetings. Fern Ainsworth will give a demonstrated lecture on "Migration Trails" April 10. On May 8, final details for the Workshop on May 15, with a lecture to follow the business session. "Microfilm Records" will be presented on June 12.

Members in the Shreveport area are doing outstanding work in copying records from microfilm, cemeteries, old Bibles, etc., for publication, but we need data from other areas. Unpublished records from southwestern Arkansas and northeast Texas are badly needed.

The next issue of The Genie is due out 1 July 1971. P L E A S E send in your material for publication as soon as possible, no later than June 1st except for last minute announcements. I don't like setting a deadline, but it is necessary to have adequate time to edit, type, print and assemble The Genie for mailing, and it is unfair to all of you to try to rush it too much. Get your queries in so I'll have time to do a better job on them than I have in this issue. Let's keep our section "Information Please" up to five or six pages every issue. Your cooperation will be most sincerely appreciated. It's your Genie, help make it a good one.

BE SURE TO GET YOUR MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION IN THE JULY GENIE IN BY JUNE 1st.

GUIDE TO MATERIALS AVAILABLE IN THE GENEALOGY ROOM OF SHREVE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Ema Lee Tipton

What you don't know may not kill you, but can certainly create difficulties, especially in genealogical research, and specifically in libraries. If you are too timid to ask questions of the librarian or don't know what questions to ask, don't feel lonesome. Just join the club - the searchers who set out full of hope and return home empty handed so many times; and weep with me for the lost years I have blundered away in bewilderment at the library.

I could always find the microfilm, sometimes an unused reader, state groups of books, but seldom a book of any help to me. I didn't know what that little cabinet at the end of the locked cases was for and if I'd ever been curious enough to look inside, would not have understood the data on the cards. Seeing others so busily reading and copying from books which apparently had extensive information on their families, I finally decided all mine were so unimportant that little had ever been published about them and I would just have to dig the records out of Archives and courthouses in Alabama, Arkansas, the Carolinas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia - and that's a lot of courthouses. I'd scrimp, save and plan all year for a crowded two-week trip each summer and kept hoping for a miracle to speed things up because I knew I'd never live long enough to complete the job this way.

Then the miracle happened! Mary Agnes Slimer, our new program chairman, set up a year of educational programs for our regular meeting, to start with a series of lectures on "Materials Available in the Genealogy Room of Shreve Memorial Library", conducted by Margery Wright and Ben Achee. Attendance at our January and February meetings was so unexpectedly great there was not enough handout material to go around, so I took none. I listened intently to the lectures, but am not very audile, much of what I hear just goes in one ear and out the other, and without the guide to follow, missed many details of the lectures.

When I received a copy of this material to prepare masters for reprinting, I just flipped! Margery Wright had done such a thorough job of diagramming the Genealogy Room, explaining the numbering system and arrangement of books, the Card Catalog, and other finding aids that a child could understand it. Next day at the library, I found three books with chapters totalling 313 pages on a family I felt must surely be "the least of these" referred to in the Bible because they seemed so little known outside their own communities. The Library Guide is the miracle I was hoping for. I'm sure now to find much information on many of my families, right here at home.

Some of you already know how to find everything at the library, but this is for the vast silent majority just like me who don't know. Recently I had the privilege of showing Booth's Confederate Records to a Shreveport searcher who had never heard of them before. She found her grandfather's Confederate records, height, color of his eyes and hair, age and residence, and on the same page, records of his brothers who also served in the Confederate Army from Louisiana. The Card Catalog would have told her where to look years ago, but, like me, she didn't know what it was for or how to use it, and didn't understand the numbering system for the books.

"A Guide to Materials in the Genealogy Room of Shreve Memorial Library", by Margery Wright, is published on the next three pages. Put this Guide in your copy book so you will have it each time you go to the library. Free copies of this valuable Guide, supplied by the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association, are now available at the librarian's desk for all who do research in this library. All our members are urged to publicize the availability of the Guide by telling others about it at every opportunity.

A GUIDE TO MATERIALS IN THE GENEALOGY ROOM OF SHREVE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

THE CARD CATALOG

The Card Catalog is to the library what an index is to a book for it shows what material the library has and where to find it. The Card Catalog indicates the number of the book, and the index indicates the number of the page.

The Card Catalog is arranged alphabetically. Each entry is made on a separate card so that new cards may be inserted each time a book is added to the library.

Since the Card Catalog shows whether the library has a particular book, or books by a certain author, or books on a special subject, we can expect to find three important kinds of cards in the Catalog: Author, Title, and Subject cards.

SAMPLE OF CARDS

Author Card

Gen.	King, Estelle Stewart
975.5	Wills, administrations and marriages of Fauquier County, Virginia. Beverly Hills, Calif. Author, 1959.
	171 p.

Title Card

Gen.	Wills, administrations and marriages of Fauquier County, Virginia.
975.5	King, Estelle Stewart
	Wills, administrations and marriages of Fauquier County, Virginia. Beverly Hills, Calif. Author, 1959.
	171 p.

Subject Card (The heading on this card will be typed in RED.)

Gen.	Virginia - Genealogy
975.5	King, Estelle Stewart
	Wills, administrations and marriages of Fauquier County, Virginia. Beverly Hills, Calif. Author, 1959.
	171 p.

If you are looking at an Author Card and are uncertain if the book would be of help to you, LOOK AT THE BACK OF THE CARD. Typed on the back, in red, you will find a list of the Subject Cards on that book. That list of Subject Cards may help you in deciding if the book would be of help to you.

In the library here, we try to make two Subject Cards on each book, i.e., one card to give the state (Alabama - Genealogy) and one if possible to give the county (Dallas County, Alabama). If the book is a family history we give only the two main lines in the book, except in rare instances.

Green banded cards, marked V.F. means that the material is in the Vertical File, not on the shelf.

"Locked Case" or "Larkin Edwards" on a card under the call number means that the book is not on the open shelf, and you must ask the librarian about using that book. These are the rare, irreplaceable, often very old and very fragile books which must be handled with extreme care.

Books in the library are arranged by number starting with 000.00 and proceeding through 999.99. The number denotes the category the books have been placed in. Every book in each category has the same number. Thus, all books on Georgia will be shelved together since they all have the same number.

When you check the Card Catalog, make a note of the number of each book you are interested in since that will help you find the books you want.

DIAGRAM OF THE FLOOR PLAN OF THE GENEALOGY ROOM, SHREVE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

The general reference books start in the island book case in front of the microfilm readers. The numbers follow around the room in order. THE BOOKS IN THE LOCKED CASES ARE NOT IN THE SAME ORDER.

The Card Catalog is set at the end of the locked cases and microfilm cabinets. The Vertical File is behind the librarian's desk.

Periodicals are placed with books of the state they cover. Thus, following the Virginia books, you will find the Virginia Magazine of Biography, the Virginia Genealogists, William and Mary Quarterly. The general periodicals are shelved last, in the island shelf by the librarian's desk. The general periodicals are National Genealogical Quarterly, Genealogical Helper, Southwestern Genealogical Newsletter, etc. Periodicals are not listed in the Card Catalog.

Extremely large books, such as the large Atlas and Louisiana Parish Maps are not kept on the shelves, but on top of the microfilm cabinets, or in other convenient locations where they can be used without moving them.

All except general reference books are grouped by states. Very simply, all the books of Virginia are grouped together, all Georgia books are grouped together. On the preceding page you will find numbers for each state and each category of reference books. Check the numbers with the diagram above and you will be able to find the books you want more easily.

This "Guide to Materials in the Genealogy Room of Shreve Memorial Library" was prepared by Mrs. Margery Wright, Genealogy Librarian, and reprinted by Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association for the benefit of all who use its facilities.

THE GENEALOGY ROOM NEEDS YOUR HELP

Margery Wright

In 1970, the Genealogy Room of Shreve Memorial Library increased its holdings by 200 new titles. This is an impressive gain, but we fell behind in securing new microfilm. All of you who use this room have felt the need.

The Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association has given $200 for new microfilm. This will help, but not cure our problems. Costs for new books and repair of many old irreplaceable books have risen tremendously and the library budget can not begin to cover all that is needed this year, with many needs still left from last year.

The Genealogy Room needs your help. Private donations will be greatly appreciated. If you belong to an organization which is looking for a worthwhile project, you could suggest they consider the Genealogy Room, or that they send memorial books to us instead of wreaths in memory of departed members and friends. Such memorial books are carefully labelled, acknowledged, and fitting notification sent to the family. If you belong to a patriotic organization, suggest they make a special contribution and expand their support of the Genealogy Room and its facilities.

Remember, a gift to the library is tax deductible. We need your help this year.

Do you have any back issues of genealogy periodicals that you no longer need or use? We are in need of many back issues of several periodicals, especially the early issues of Genealogical Helper. Please send us any you do not need. These are tax deductible, too.

Volunteer help is needed in the Genealogy Room for several hours each day to help with sorting, typing, filing, to work on the Vertical Files and for many other details. This is urgent. Please call Margery Wright at 423-2614.

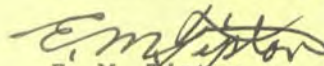

TO ALL MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE ARK-LA-TEX GENEALOGICAL ASSOCIATION:

Now is the time for all good ancestor hunters to come to the aid of the Genealogy Room. You are urged to consider very seriously all needs described by Mrs. Wright. Any need of the Genealogy Room is our need, too, individually and collectively. Let's get together on this at once. If you have any spare time, money, or back issues of periodicals available, turn them in to Mrs. Wright immediately.

Members of the Beginner's Class in Genealogy, sponsored by our Association, would do well to take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about the Genealogy Room by offering your volunteer services for a few hours each week. You will get a liberal education in how to use the library in a hurry and learn more than you could ever hope to in any other way. When this emergency is over, you will know the answers to many questions you may never even think to ask and will be able to carry out your research with much greater efficiency and success.

I am making this a personal appeal to all members, to all who read The Genie, and to all who use the facilities of this library. Margery has never asked for help before. We can not let her down. We can not let ourselves down. The benefits and rewards for meeting these needs promptly are beyond estimation for all of us.

In all sincerity,

E. M. Tipton
President

Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association

This completes publication of the Direct Index to Caddo Conveyances 1838-1859, Deed Books A thru M. Names of the buyers in the second column far exceed the names of the sellers in column No. 1, because many of these sellers owned huge tracts of land and many buyer purchased only small tracts.

For prompt information as to number of pages and cost of zerox copies of any Caddo Parish Conveyance published in The Genie, send self-addressed stamped envelope with year, name of seller, name of buyer, book and page number to:

Mr. Dwight D. Pyburn (ATTN. Mrs. Dollard Berry)
 Clerk of Court - Caddo Parish Louisiana
 P. O. Box 1833
 Shreveport, Louisiana 71102

Some of these transactions involved many pages, especially Successions and Estate Settlements, so be sure to include all Book and Page numbers in requests for information.

WHAT OTHERS ARE DOING

This section of The Genie includes news on activities of other organizations of the south and southwest, review of periodicals, announcements of special meetings, Workshops, publications and other data of interest in our area, but no commercial type ads. All Genealogical-Historical groups are most cordially invited to send in their news releases for publication in this section.

Chairman

Each Tour: $3.00. Brochure & map available from Tour Chairmen or DeSoto Parish Historical Society, Box 743, Mansfield, La. 71052, and in local newspapers.

Mr. & Mrs. Gene Lush have presented the microfilm of "KEATCHIE COLLEGE REGISTER - 1883-1911" to the Genealogy Room of Shreve Memorial Library. The old original register was discovered at Fairview Plantation during the DeSoto Historic Tour last year, and is owned by John T. Moseley III, of Fairview, on the Blue Tour this year. Keatchie College was established in 1852 and attended by sons and daughters of many prominent early northwest Louisiana and East Texas families. It was absorbed into Louisiana Baptist College after 1911, and while earlier records have not been located, this last register gives the name of the student, parent or the guardian and residence, and identifies many early settlers of this area. It is very important genealogically and historically. Libraries, Archives, Colleges and individuals may order this microfilm from LUSH CUSTOM MICROFILM, 2737 O'Bannon Drive, Dallas, Texas 75224, for $4.00 postpaid.

SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

W. H. Rutledge

Recently, a group of dedicated descendents of Confederate Veterans met and reformed a Camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans in Shreveport, Louisiana, to help perpetuate the priceless southern heritage left behind by those valiant Men in Grey.

Originally, the true Confederate Veterans themselves had their own Confederation of members that numbered into the thousands. As their ranks began thinning with age, the sons of these patriots took up the Banner to keep alive the principles for which these men fought and so many made the supreme sacrifice. Today, there are precious few who are true Sons of the Confederacy, but there are untold thousands of grandsons, great-grandsons, grand-nephews, and others who, by lateral or collateral descent can trace their relationship to a Southerner who wore the Grey of the Confederacy.

One of the noteworthy projects of the Sons of Confederate Veterans is to help maintain with funds, the Home of Jefferson Davis, "Beauvoir", on the Gulf Coast, for here lies the heart of the Confederacy through posterity for all to see and appreciate.

This new Camp, through its elected officers, urges all male descendents of Confederate Veterans, 12 years of age or older, to contact the Camp's Commander or any member they may know and make application for membership.

CAMP COMMANDER: W. H. Rutledge, 120 Robert E. Lee Place, Bossier City, La. 71010

CHURCH AND CEMETERY REUNIONS

Church Services and Special Programs begin about 10:00 a.m. at each of these, followed by the traditional feast of basket lunches spread on long tables, with every one going around selecting what he likes best, visiting with relatives and friends he hasn't seen since last "homecoming" and cameras and tape recorders work overtime, while genealogy is the major topic of conversation the entire day.

18 April 1971: ROCKY MOUNT CEMETERY, near Ringgold, Bienville Parish, La. The beautiful little old Church building was burned by arsonists last fall, but a big tent will be provided for the "homecoming" this year. This is old Alabama Bend, and early settlers were named FRANKLIN, BURKETT, KIRKPATRICK, MAYFIELD, MOSELEY, LOCKE, TIPTON, NETTLES, SCOTT, McCOY, BATES, CRUMPTON, GREEN, SKIPPER, SLEDGE, TOOKE, WIMBERLY, HALL, VICKERS, HALL, HUCKABAY, and others too numerous to list.

2 May 1971: SPRINGHILL BAPTIST CHURCH, near Ringgold, Bienville Parish, La. A fine modern building replaces the old one, with the ancient cemetery not greatly enlarged. Settled by same families listed above. Old Post Office was MANNING, LA.

2 May 1971: GROVE HILL CEMETERY (Old Double-Churches), off Mansfield-Pelican Hiway, near Fire Tower in DeSoto Parish. First grave about 1850, and early settlers were named CARROLL, ETHEREDGE, MASON, MOORE, MASON, NANCE, SMITH, WILLIAMS, et al, most from Alabama.

VIRGINIA WORKSHOP
Fort Worth Genealogical Society
Saturday, 27 March 1971

About 175 eager listeners head Dr. Virginia Pope Livingston lecture on Research in Virginia, including surrounding areas of Maryland, the Carolinas and Tennessee. All those who had attended the Institute of Genealogy at Samford University knew what to expect, but for the uninitiated, like me, this was an experience we will never forget.

Dr. Livingston's training, skill, experience and reputation are well known throughout America, but little has been said of her charm, wit, fabulous memory for dates, names and places, generous compliance to the demands of her audience, or her amazing stamina. Many were so hungry for information they kept her talking for seven hours, even during coffee breaks and lunch crowding around her with questions on almost every possible phase of genealogy and research. Most of us would have just dropped dead with fatigue long before 4:30 p.m.

We were promised "a very rewarding day." It was that and more. We congratulate Fort Worth on their well planned successful Workshop, and bow to the brilliant, gracious lady who made it so very rewarding for all who came to hear her lecture.

LUFKIN GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Annual Genealogical Workshop
Lufkin, Texas 27 March 1971

Lufkin always has a fine program for their workshops with a large attendance. This was no exception. The Banquet Room of Holiday Inn was filled to capacity. Outstanding lecturers, good fellowship, a fine luncheon and other features set a precedent for Workshops all over the country that will be hard for others to follow.

YOU CAN'T DO IT ALL AT ONE TIME

Ema Lee Tipton

In Nonsense Novels Stephen Leacock tells of a hero who jumped on his horse and dashed frantically off in all directions at once. Some searchers take this same approach to genealogy, then complain bitterly that they never get anywhere. If you suggest they slow down, get better organized, and try concentrating on only one or two lines at a time, they ignore you or hurriedly explain they can't since they need proof that some ancestor came over in the Mayflower, to Virginia before 1700, or fought in the Revolution in order to join some society at once, or establish their descent from royalty - and any old ancestor who qualifies will do.

A friend told me that she left home at 7:00 one morning, went through all the old courthouse records in Red River, Natchitoches, Sabine and DeSoto Parishes but found nothing and didn't get back home until 5:30 p.m. - that same day. With about six hours for driving and coffee breaks, she barely had time to go through the courthouse buildings, locate offices where the records were kept, and perhaps to check a few indexes. She certainly didn't have time to "go through" all the old records, but she was in a real big hurry.

A cousin wrote that she was taking a two-week trip through Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia, the Carolinas and Virginia and expected to locate all the records on 34 of her families scattered throughout all these states. She returned blaming courthouse and archives personnel for her failure to find more than a few scraps of data, saying she had spent at least an hour at each courthouse and State Archives where she knew some records should be, and couldn't imagine why she failed to find them. My cousin must have inherited her imagination and common sense from her mother's side of the family - not from mine.

To attempt research on all your families at one time is a mistake. If you are a good juggler, perhaps you can keep your grandparents, even great-grandparents, all up in the air at the same time, but beyond that, NEVER! Note even if you are psychic, agile as a cat, have a photogenic mind, perfect health, the stamina of an ox, nothing else to do, and someone to help you full time 36 hours a day! Not even Merlin, the magician of King Arthur's Court, could pull all his ancestors out of the past at one time. Not even Houdini could do that.

Just try it and before long you will be climbing imaginary family trees right in the middle of your padded cell, perching on a limb and crying, "Grandpa Jones-Smith-Brown-Turner-Williams! Grandpa What-Ever-Your-Name-Is, where are you?"

So you started late, most of your older relatives are gone, you are past 40, getting no younger, days growing shorter, weeks passing faster, you don't have 100 years to find all the records on all your ancestors - and you want them ALL. That would be nice, but haven't you heard of those poor souls who want ice water? Or that little snowball's chances of survival in the summer sun? Your chances of ever finding all the records on all your ancestors, or even all your ancestors, are much slimmer than these, so concentrate on those you can find - one or two at a time, straight back, one or two steps at a time.

Don't give up hope of finding the others, but let them wait until you get to a stopping place or up against a blank wall on those you're working on, then start on one or two more. Don't waste time jumping from place to place, family to family, never looking to see where you are going or where you have been, and never taking time to just sit down and think things over and plan your next step. I spent the first two years of research chasing 23 families all over the south and southwest without too much success, then another year untangling the records and separating them into small closely related groups to be concentrated on one at a time. Since then, almost every hour of research has been an hour of progress. When I get stopped on one, I simply go to another with no difficulty or delay. Don't destroy yourself by trying to go in all directions at once.

In extracting these Bienville Parish Wills and Successions, Paunee Honley has attempted to give names, dates, places, and has omitted most of the non-essential data and the "whereases", "wherefores", "etc's", and detailed haggling over the who-kind-of-whats that have no genealogical significance. Please note most of the nine wills extracted covered an average of five or six pages in the old Will Book. Compiling this type information is slow, tedious work. Everyone stand up and applaud the unselfish labor put forth for your benefit. We thank you, Paunee.

SKETCHES OF MOBILE, published 1868 by Captain Bernard A. Reynolds, a Mobile, Ala. newspaper man, is being reprinted and will be available soon. Except for the addition of Capt.
