PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Your President has used the past two and a half months reaping the fruits of genealogical research. By this I mean that I have corresponded with many of my distant cousins over the past 25 years. Even though I have not actually met most of these in person I have come to love them all through our continued correspondence. Thus in the last few weeks my travels have taken me as far west as California and as far east as Florida during which time I had the privilege of attending three Nance Family Reunions in as many states.

This has been a mountain top experience for me, and I would highly recommend such a trip to all of you.

Now that I have expressed what such a trip meant to me I want to also say that I have an equal feeling each year when many of our out-of-town members gather in the Shreveport-Bossier area for our annual genealogical workshop and pre-workshop dinner. This is not only a time when old friends get together but I have, in the past, managed to find at these meetings at least one heretofore unknown cousin and this year I hope another will appear. You too may have such good luck. So make plans now to come and enjoy a good workshop and a pre-workshop dinner where good fellowship always prevails. See you August 13th at the Barksdale Air Force Base Officers' Club.

Sincerely,

M. L. "Pete" Nance

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

This issue of THE GENIE marks the completion of two years as editor of your quarterly. It has been an enjoyable, interesting, and educational experience to work with the members of our Association to keep THE GENIE alive, kicking and growing. My heartfelt thanks to the many workers and contributors who have done so much to help; because of them, your GENIE thrives and the future looks bright.

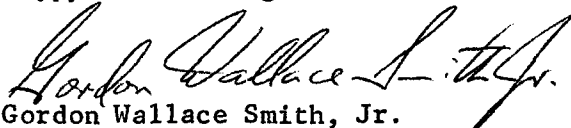

As always, we are interested in receiving your comments as to items or features you'd like to see printed, and contributions of material for publication are always most gratefully received. We are particularly interested in printing more records of southern Arkansas - does anyone have some to share?

We would also like to print more queries - just write them out in roughly the same format as those you see printed in THE GENIE and send them in - they needn't be typed. Who knows, someone may be able to help you pin down that elusive ancestor! Sharing and helping each other are the reasons for having genealogical societies and associations such as ours.

Speaking of help - our Tenth Annual Workshop, August 14, is sure to be a tremendous help to anyone researching Virginia, the Carolinas, or Georgia. Dr. Williams' expert knowledge of the south Atlantic coastal states will be invaluable to all of us with ancestors in that area. Be sure to be there, and don't forget the traditional pre-Workshop Dinner Party the evening of August 13th honoring Dr. Williams. You're invited - plan to come - we'll all have an enjoyable time. Registration and reservation forms will be found in this issue.

Remember, THE GENIE is YOUR quarterly. Your comments or suggestions are always appreciated.

Happy Researching!

Gordon Wallace Smith, Jr.
Editor, THE GENIE

LOUISIANA CIVIL WAR PENSIONS END
(Grant Parish Veteran's Widow)

From an item on the front page of THE SHREVEPORT TIMES, Friday, June 4, 1976

With the death on May 7, 1976, of 100-year-old Rebecca Traylor, the only beneficiary for several years, Louisiana closed its file of Civil War pensions.

Mrs. Traylor, a resident of Beaumont, Texas at the time of her death, was the widow of Grant Parish veteran Jerry R. Traylor, who died in 1917. Both had been recipients of Confederate pensions which were provided by action of the Louisiana legislature in 1898. Only a few days before she died she had received her monthly check of $60.00.

The news item states J. R. Traylor and Rebecca, "natives of Grant Parish, were married in 1898". (In searching microfilm records of Grant Parish Marriages for Rebecca's surname, we found only one marriage record for J. R. Traylor as follows: Book B, Folio 134 - J. R. Traylor and Rebecca Thompson, 20 Oct 1913, at residence of J. R. Traylor, by W. B. Oglesby. Recorded on 22 January 1914. Ed.)

He was living in Grant Parish when the 1911 Census of Confederate Veterans and Widows was taken (see THE GENIE, April 1975, Vol. IX, No. 2, pg 56.)

In 1864, Mr. Traylor volunteered at Waco, Texas, and served with the 1st Texas Heavy Artillery Battalion, Battery K, and also the Texas infantry. Transferred to Shreveport, he helped build the gunboat, MISSOURI. He was a seaman on the MISSOURI when forced to surrender in New Orleans.

STEWART-WALKERVILLE CEMETERY
WALKERVILLE, COLUMBIA COUNTY, ARKANSAS

Surveyed by Terrell O. Hamaker

The cemetery is located 14 miles south of Magnolia and ½ mile west of Walkerville on Arkansas Hwy 19. This cemetery was formally established in 1956 by a group of concerned citizens of the community. The land, which was used as a cemetery prior to 1956, was donated by Mr. Thomas Byrd Walker, who died 24 May 1970. The up-keep is paid for by personal donations plus an endowment fund that produces some income. Terrell O. Hamaker and Charles E. Hughes did the civil engineering work necessary to establish the cemetery. In September 1975 the trustees were: F. U. Smith, George Stewart, A. B. Daily and Mr. Hamaker.

McCURRY or BAKER CEMETERY
BOWIE COUNTY, TEXAS

Copied by Mrs. Woodrow Wilburn

This cemetery was first published in THE GENIE, April 1972, however Mrs. Wilburn has done further research, including an interview in February 1973, which brought forth data not known to her in 1972. The information in parenthesis is the new data which Mrs. Wilburn submitted in August 1975.

Located on Richmond Road in Texarkana, the cemetery is kept mowed and is fenced. It is in sight of the highway.

No other McCurry graves are marked, but McCurry wives are buried here. Four concrete slabs may perhaps mark their graves.

It is also said that two of Marcellus & Elizabeth McCurry's daughters, Betty and Ellen, both married a Mr. Morris, are buried here, perhaps.

THE NEW ORLEANS CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

The New Orleans Christian Advocate: Marriages and Obituaries, which Ema Lee Tipton transcribes from microfilm, is not in this issue - a temporary hiatus. "Tip" and Ema Lee were taking a well-deserved spring and summer break for rest, research, and a family reunion in Tennessee, when the July GENIE went to press.

IN THE OCTOBER GENIE

As noted in the April GENIE we had quite a backlog of Cemetery Records. We had hoped to publish them all in this issue, however there are three more for which we did not have enough space. These will appear in the October GENIE:

Mount Pleasant Cemetery - near Simpson, Vernon Parish
Pine Island Cemetery - Simpson, Vernon Parish
Moore's Chapel Cemetery - Bowie County, Texas

Genealogically Speaking

By James A. Clément Jr. OSB
Genealogist & Historian

P. O. Box 824, Shreveport, La. 71162

Another group of budding genealogists have completed the genealogical research course (Genealogy 201: Scientific Genealogical Research) offered by Bossier Community College in Bossier City, LA. And, once again, the class had the highest attendance rate and lowest dropout rate of any course taught there.

Completing the course in the Spring 1976 semester were: Virginia A. Ferguson, Claude B. Finley, Jr., Ciel Currie Glover, Shirley R. Graham, Aubrey Lee Hanes, Herbert R. Hanisee, Bobbye E. Jones, Louise C. Juchartz, Jimmy R. LeGrand, Marguerite J. Loftin, Pauline Harper Luck, Kathryn M. McNutt, Sharon J. Paxton, Darrell Phillips, Ursula G. Phillips, Evelyn H. Rees, Martin L. Rees, Shirley M. Reynolds, Andrea L. Saarela, Jane M. Schumacher, Frances F. Snider, Herman A. Vogel and Martha S. Vogel.

A reader has written to ask about the Soundex of 1880. She stated that "...only three Soundex films for Arkansas are in the Shreve Memorial Library..." and that "...none of these fit the lines of ... or the related lines of, which I am working on." She also wanted to know what the line with "M.D.C." under it means.

First, the Shreve Memorial Library does not have a program to purchase all the Soundex film. The cost of these compared to the library's budget puts them completely out of reach. Soundex film that is there now, for the most part, are rolls that have been purchased by patrons of the library and then donated to the library. That is why you will find what appears to be the middle of the index.

If you find a roll that applies to the names you are working on, then you are indeed fortunate. If the library does not have your names on file, then you have three choices: 1) purchase the film yourself and (if you so desire) donate it to the library after you finish (it's tax deductible); 2) send off and have someone in another city read the film for you (which will sometimes be as much as buying the film yourself); or 3) do without.

Now, the second part of the question, "What do the letters M.C.D. mean?" These letters stand for "Municipal Civil District" which is usually the township, precinct or ward in which the person lived.

Another reader has asked where the early state land records of Alabama can be found. If you fail to find anything in the counties, write to the Department of Archives and History at Montgomery, Ala., and to the National Archives in Washington, D.C.

Mr. JMM asked what church a child born in 1864 at Algiers, La., would be baptized in. The Holy Name of Mary Church (established 1847) is located at 500 Eliza Street, New Orleans, LA 70114. Algiers is now a part of New Orleans. When writing I suggest a SASE with your letter. The records of St. Bartholomew Church (established about 1842) are also at this address.

To SCR I would suggest that you check through Nell M. Nugent's book, Cavaliers and Pioneers, E. G. Swem's Virginia Historical Index (2 volumes, 1934 & 1936), Old Churches and Families of Virginia by W. Meade, and the tax lists of 1782-87. All of these are good finding tools for early Virginia.

BJA, you can check James Bryan Grimes' North Carolina Wills and Fred Olds' North Carolina Wills for possible leads for your North Carolina problem. Grimes' work covers the period to 1760 and Olds' book covers 1760-1800. A word of caution, however, on both works. Grimes so abbreviated his notes that there are important omissions and Olds' is full of errors and omissions.

JRL, yes, the census was taken in Georgia in 1790, 1800 and 1810; however, they are missing. There are several substitutes you may use. There were six land lotteries between 1805 and 1832. The 1805 lottery is important because not only were the names of all registrants listed, the county of their residence, registration number, results of the draw and descriptive comments appear. The 1805 lottery is a fine substitute for the 1800 census. The third lottery was made in 1820 while the fifth (1827) and the sixth (1832) will help fill the gap for the 1830 census. Of course, tax digests for the various counties are also very valuable for the missing years.

MLF states her problem as being unable to account how her family ended up in southeast Alabama when all records show that the family migrated to Mississippi. This problem points out the need to learn not only the genealogy of your family, but, you must learn the genealogy of places, too. In this case the records show that the family did, in fact, move "... to the Mississippi Territory ..." in 1812. The place where they settled down was then called the "Mississippi Territory". But, in 1819 that area became part of the newly formed "Alabama Territory". A closer look at the area shows that part of Barbour County was carved out of old Henry County and partly out of the Creek Cession of 1832. The area where your family settled was the Henry County part.

KBD, officially you were born in the town that appears on your birth certificate. Your problem is common among those born in rural areas, especially when the child was born in the home. In your family records you should mention that you were born in the Roeville Community which is near Abbeville. Mention also that the doctor lived in Abbeville and that is probably why he put that town as your birthplace.

For SP who wanted to know if an application for marriage license is sufficient evidence that a couple married. The answer is a quick and simple, NO! Your problem is similar to many others. In all probability the couple did get married; but, if the minister did not file a return or a notation appears on the record showing that the marriage took place, I'd start looking for other evidence. I am reminded of a couple that applied for a license to marry on four separate occasions. The first two showed the girl as being of age. The third and fourth showed her as being 14 years of age; however, the third had what was supposed to be her father's permission. The fourth application also had her father's permission, however there is a world of difference in the handwriting of the two permission letters. The time span between the first application and the last was six months. What happened? The couple tried three times to get married and were probably found out and stopped by the girl's parents. Would you have accepted the application that first appeared? Another question comes to mind. Maybe the couple didn't get married at all, or did they? You've got to search for more sources. Are there land records, wills, any kind of record that shows the couple as man and wife? If so, then it is possible that the minister forgot to file his return. This happened in many cases. Check for family Bibles, for correspondence, for insurance papers.

LJ, if you have to write a letter to a foreign country perhaps you could find a language teacher at one of the colleges in your area to translate for you. When writing to a foreign country it is always the polite thing to write to them in their own language. It is vain to think that everyone speaks English. You might ask in a last paragraph if the person you are writing could correspond in English because you do not know his language.

BOOK REVIEWS

THE ISLE OF MAN, by R. H. Kinvig. Cloth bound, 249 pp. Published by Charles E. Tuttle Co., Inc., Rutland, Vermont 05701. $14.95 per copy.

This is a history of the Isle of Man, with this particular book being the third edition, completely revised and reset, was first published over 25 years ago. Since the words "Isle of Man" bear such a romantic sound, and since it is an island that has been influenced for over 1500 years by its larger neighbors -- England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales -- it bears a most interesting pre-history and history. This work also reviews the institutions, personalities and events which have shaped the culture and traditions of the island. Particular attention has been paid to modern developments, and the writing has been brought up-to-date. Illustrated by photographs and especially prepared drawings make this the most complete account now available of an island society unique in Western Europe.
