THE PRESIDENT'S PAGE

May we wish each of you a successful HAPPY NEW YEAR. We would like to express our gratitude and appreciation for your loyalty and support during the past year; with your support we accomplished many of the goals we had set for 1979.

As an organization, we are proud of our accomplishments the past year, and we feel we are justified in this feeling. The Fund Raising Committee has been very active in its efforts in Open Market sales, Lending Library and other activities which has resulted in our realizing a net profit of $1,683.45.

We have been able to donate to the Genealogy Department of Shreve Memorial Library $2,000.00 to be used for purchase of genealogical materials; 1 roll of microfilm, 25 books and numerous memorial gifts. We are also engaged in an exchange program with other genealogical societies and obtain copies of their quarterlies which are placed in the Shreve Memorial Library. At the present time, we exchange with 87 different organizations throughout the United States.

We plan to continue these activities during 1980 and need your help in securing items for the Mall sales. There is a demand for household items, so if you have some you plan to discard, please let us have them.

The 1979 Genealogical Congress held in New Orleans in July was very well received and a great success. Speakers included 34 genealogists, historians and archivists from all sections of the United States. All who attended were very enthusiastic about the event.

One of the main events planned for this year is The Genealogical Congress which will be held at Centenary College here in Shreveport, June 10th through June 14th. For more details see the special announcement in this issue of THE GENIE. Another important goal is to have a concerted membership drive.

For the past 3 years we have been holding our Genealogy meetings in the Cabin Fever Room at Mall St. Vincent and have enjoyed the facilities there, but the Mall has rented this facility. We have had to locate elsewhere. Beginning with the January meeting we will be holding our regular monthly meeting at 3 P.M. (NOTE Not 2 P.M.) at WERNER PARK MEMORIAL BUILDING, located 2617 Corbitt Street between Mansfield Road and Hearn Avenue. The meeting is held the second Saturday of each month.

SEE YOU THERE! ! ! !

The State of Mississippi

Personally appeared before me, Jackson Millsaps, Judge of Probate of said county, Hannah Carpenter who after being duly sworn by me says that the following are the legal heirs of Temple Carpenter late of said county deceased, and also their ideas of residence to the best of her knowledge and belief, to wit - Solomon Carpenter now deceased leaving the following children who reside in the state of Arkansas, to wit, Owen, Martin, Patrison, Jasper and John Carpenter, Jane Chance in the state of Louisiana, (Adaline Murry/Maury of this county and her husband Alexander Murray/Maury" inserted here between lines, but seemingly in same handwriting, followed by another between line insertion which reads, "first work is illegible, but could be 'Impatience' and Thomas Carpenter of the state of Louisiana"), John Carpenter last account in Coafonia, don't know whether dead or alive, William Carpenter residing in Arkansas, Martin Carpenter residing in Yalobusha County this state, Mary Smith and her husband Everett Smith of the State of Arkansas, also in the state of Arkansas the children of Margaret Pate now deceased who was daughter of decedent, to wit, William, Mary, Sarah, Martin and Edwin. Elizabeth O'Neal now deceased leaving the following children, William Guess of Leake County this State, Adaline Cagle and her husband Jesse Cagle of this County. Malvina A. Scott and her husband John Scott of Texas. Owen Carpenter now deceased and the residence of his children unknown. Matthew Carpenter Leake County this state. Amanda James now deceased leaving a son named Hugh James. Sara James and her husband Bartley James of this County in said residence this County.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 14th day Feb. 1855.

J. Millsaps, Judge Probate

Mr. Smith would be very interested in contacting any of the descendants of the Everett and Mary Smith mentioned as living in Arkansas. In the 1850 Arkansas census an Averitt Smith in Franklin Co., also a Martin, Patterson and Jasper Carpenter are listed. Averitt is the "old" spelling for Everett and so Mr. Smith feels this is the same as Everett Smith of the Probate Record.

Mr. Smith may be contacted at: 4661 South Drive, Box 22,
Jackson, Miss. 39209.

Doct. D. L. Cheatham
Davisboro, Ga.

Dear Lewis:

I propose now as I know to give you the ancestral lineage of the Cheathams and Hancock families from whom your fathers sprang. They were all of English origin. The Cheatham, Hancock, and Rudd all came from England proper, the Bakers from Wales, which is a principality of England and the citizens of which was formerly known and called Welch people. The Prince of Wales to this day is known as the heir apparent to the Crown of England. They all then came from England to America sometime between the accession of William and Mary to the throne of England in 1689 and the declaration of war by England against France in 1756, known in history as the French and Indian War.

These four families (with the exception of John Hancock of Revolutionary memory who settled in Massachusetts) all settled in Shar-toll and Chesterfield Counties in the Colony of Virginia. They was all considered at that time quite wealthy and soon got to farming and purchased and owned quite a number of negroes. Your great grandfather Cheatham was by the name of Obadiah. He married Margaret Rudd. They had but two children, Arthur, who was your grandfather Cheatham and sister Lavinia. Your Great grandfather Obadiah was with General Washington in his celebrated retreat through New Jersey in the fall of 1776, was in several battles, suffered a great many hardships, was never wounded, returned home on furlough sick and died the latter part of 1776, or first of 1777.

His wife, your great grandmother Cheatham, whose maiden name was Margaret Rudd, afterward married Barnette Cheatham, who was a distant cousin of her first husband, by whom she had three children, Obediance who was called Aunt Bidsey, Charles and Thomas. Your Mother will remember Aunt Bidsey and Uncle Charles. They were all half brothers and sisters to your Grandfather Arthur Cheatham. John Hancock, who settled in Massachusetts, and Anthony Hancock, your great grandfather, the father of your Grandmother Cheatham, was cousins. Anthony Hancock married Sarah Baker sometime in 1751. Sarah Baker was your great grandmother on your father's side. She lived to be 91 or 92 years old, was the best read, the most scientific, and stood higher as a physician than any lady of her day, and in domestic matters particularly as a cook world could not excell her. She was one of the best chemist of her day and should have been made professor of that science, and the science of common sense in some University, for she was better versed in either than any woman I ever saw. She died June 20th, 1822.

Anthony Hancock, your great grandfather on your father's side, was a mechanician, but especially that of a house carpenter. I expect more than fifty young men learned the trade of being a carpenter by being bound to him. He had what was called a common English education. These were yours and my father's grandfather and mother on Mother's side. They had seven children. Their names was Martin, Douglas, Thomas, John, Sarah, Ann and Jane. Schools being scarce in their day, they educated their own children, mostly at night, and principally by their Mother. These were the brothers and sisters of my Mother who was your Grandmother. Your Great Grandfather, Anthony Hancock died 7th April 1806 aged about 72 or 73 and 16 years before his wife.

Their son Martin married a Miss Harvey. They had six or seven children. Four boys, three of whom were born mutes. They became quite wealthy,, educated all their children in all the higher .. classics. The one named Douglas, who was one of the mutes, was one of the best farmers in the state of Virginia and wrote a great many essays on the subject of farming. My uncle Douglas Hancock married a Miss Thomas, had but one child. His wife died, he then moved to the state of Mississippi where he died. His only daughter married Dr. Cooper, also of Mississippi, who was a D. D. and a M.D. My uncle Thomas Hancock married my father's Sister, Laviney. They had five children and two grandchildren, all of whom died before the age of twenty-two except Mrs. Margaret Fryerson of Athens, Ga., who is the only grandchild living.

My uncle John Hancock married, but like his namesake, the writer, never had any children. Aunt Sarah Hancock married Isaac Smith. They had six children, three boys and three daughters. The daughters were said to be the prettyest girls in Virginia. One of them marryed one of the Governors of Virginia. Aunt Jane Hancock marryed Richard Brown, father of cousin Dick as we all call him, whom you knew, and who died in Washington County, Ga. since the war (civil). They had eight sons and one daughter Vic (?), Burrell, Martin, Marcus, Richard who is known as cousin Dick, Douglas, James, and John and Sarah. Sarah marryed Nathaniel Bostick. She was the mother of General Jim Bostick who killed a man by the name of Barge and who himself was killed in the same spot.

Your grandfather Arthur Cheatham marryed your grandmother Ann Hancock in 1792. He only 19 years old and she a little over 17. They had twelve children viz: Sarah Baker, Anthony Robinson, Obadiah Pride, Arthur Rudd, Your father, John Isom, myself, Thomas Hancock, Martha Ann, Barbary Jane, Caroline Lavinia, Mary Douglas, Sophia Obedience, and Martha who died the 5th Sept. 1805. Your Grandfather Cheatham died 30th Jan. 1818, aged 45 years, 6 mo. 14 da. Your Grandmother An Cheatham died in Monroe, Walton County Ga. 4th Sept. 1839 age 66 years 3 mo. and 18 days. Their children all lived to be married and all except myself and sister Caroline had children. The children of your grandfather and grandmother Cheatham are all dead except Brother Tom who lives in Mississippi and will be 71 years old on the 16th day of August 1878 and myself who am 76 years old on the 29th inst. which will be next Saturday. Their Grandchildren that are still living are scattered to the four winds. The last I heard of them there was between 40 and 50 grand and great grand-children still living. They reside in Ga., Ala., Mi., La., Ark. Tenn., Mo., Ky., Va., N. Y., and some I know not where.

I believe I have given you the lineage of your fathers on the Cheatham family as far as I know or have heard with the exception of an anecdote concerning the name Cheatham and a few facts relating to the same. It is said the name is pure English and was originally Chatham and not Cheatham as written, and the way the e cropt into the name is thuswise: One of the young bucks in England by the name of Chatham became enamoured with a young maiden of the same name, but no relation, some mutual pledges passed and as usual in such cases forfeited. In due time a witness in the shape of a fine little boy came into court and sealed the bargain. She said they both was cheated, neither expecting such a result in half the time, and it's name should not be called Chatham but Cheatham because there was a chear somewhere, but in due course of time they complied with the Bible, wiped out the crime with a marriage, adopted the e and the name hence the name Cheatham, and while it is said there is nothing in a name, I believe I would sooner have the name Cheatham than Chatham.

The facts I wish to relate concerning the name are these: I have never know or heard of a man by the name of Cheatham that ever committed a crime that was indictable in a court. I have never known or heard of an unmarried lady by the name of Cheatham that every bartered, sold, bestowed or in any other way to part her chastity or virginity, or as it is sometimes vulgarly called, to break her leg. The men, except myself, generally carry out what they undertake, are industrious, and smart in the way of common sense. The women make the smartest housekeepers, seamstresses, cooks, wives, mothers and sisters in the world, and generally pretty.

I don't now of anything that I have left out of much importance. If you think of anything either now or hereafter you would like to know remind me of it and I will inform you if I can.

Should you wish to keep this lineage you had best copy it in ink as I cannot write only in pencil, and after a time the pencil marks will rub out.

The CHEATHAM, HANCOCK, and RUDD Family History - Continued

You or Dr. Tom write me soon what has been done in the division of the Hardwick land. My respects to your wife, Mother and all.

Very affectionately,

John I. Cheatham

If you will notice in brother Anthony's name the name of Robinson, in brother Obadiah's that of Pride, in my own that of Isom, these names was given to perpetuate the names of certain families by those names that was connected by marriage to the Cheatham family and that emigrated from England to Virginia bout the same time with the Cheathams, the R udds, the Hancocks, and the Bakers.

born 1820 and died 22 Aug 1905.

Adolphus M. McCranie and Martha S. Harris had the following children: John Allen, Bennie Huella, Harry Ruth, Adolphus, Agnes, Daisy, Edmund Hart, and Marion Ashley. A. M. McCranie was twice Mayor of Homer. Allen Harris was the first Sheriff of Claiborne Parish, La.) MGN

The above were ancestors of: Mary Frank Baker Miller, 4220 Reily Lane, Apt. G. 202, Shreveport, La. 71105. She would like to correspond with anyone having earlier data on McCranie - Harris lines.

Obituary: A. McCranie is dead. The close of his busy life came upon him in what would have been his prime, had not disease aged him so early. For more than twenty years A. McCranie lived in Homer, and through all that time was fully identified with the interest of the parish. He was a man of rare mental endowments, without any of the culture of the schools, he was possessed of remarkable mental endowments. Beginning life at the lowest round of the ladder, by energy, industry and the exercise of rarest of facilities, strong common sense, he accumulated a fortune unusually large for this portion of the South. He leaves a large family; a wife who has shared all his prosperity and who is sorely stricken by his death. His children now know for the first time the value of the parent who has gone. Thanks to his prudent forethought, their future is now largely in their own hands. With the advantages, they have a brilliant or a useful career before them. What their lives shall be, it is for them to say.

TITLE: KEITH KINFOLKS

AUTHOR AND PUBLISHER: Larry King
100 Longview Dr.- LONGVIEW ACRES $25.00
Hendersonville, Tennessee 37075

James Keith, Sr. was brought to America as an infant about 1719. Since the Keith Family of Scotland and England were active in attempts to return the Stuart Family to the Throne, evidence indicates possibly his parents were deported to the Colonies or were fleeing punishment for their part in the Jacobite Rebellion and the disastrous Battle of Sheriffmuir in 1715.

Keith descendants can be rightfully proud of the historical and authentic record of the ancient and noble Family of Keith given in the Book. It tells of their origin as a tribe in Germany where they were known as the Chatti and of their refusal to accept terms of their conqueror. They migrated to present day Holland where they were unwelcome because the natives considered them too industrious, thriving and warlike and ordered their departure. The Chatti set sail with their wives and children and were forced by storm to land in Scotland. The Scots, alarmed by a people trained in war, declined them a share of their country and ordered their departure. The newcomers refused and were victorious in the battle which followed. They increased, prospered and spread into the McPHERSON, McINTOSH and other families from the Eleventh through the Seventeenth Centuries. Their surname comes from a royal grant to them of lands of Keith in East Lothian; Keith meaning wooded place. Because of their adherence to the Stuart Family cause in the Jacobite Rebellion and the climaxing Battle of Sheriffmuir in 1715 they lost their estates and Royal titles, were executed, imprisoned, deported and otherwise punished. Today those who were forced to immigrate, or were deported, to the American Colonies are represented by numerous descendants occupying all levels of society in virtually every profession.

KEITH KINFOLKS is a record of one group of these individuals; descendants of James Keith, Sr. in America from 1719 to 1979. In addition to KEITH, related families treated most extensively in the Book are: ALDERMAN, BISHOP, BOLT, BROWN, BRUCE, BUCKNER, CHAPMAN, COLE, DAILY, DORSEY, DUNCAN, EANES, FITZWATER, GEARHART, GRAYSON, HARMAN, HARRIS, HOLCOMB, HOWELL, HYLTON, JARVIS, JEFFERS, KINCAID, KING, KIRBY, KNOWLES, LEGG, LOGAN, LOVING, LUNSFORD, MOLES, MOODY, MORRIS, MOSELEY, MOTLEY, McGAUGHEY, NEAL, PATTERSON, PHILLIPS, POFF, PRATT, OSBORNE, OWENS, QUARLES, RAMSEY, REED, ROLLINS, ROUNTREE, RUCKER, SEMONES, SHIPMEN, SLAUGHTER, SLUSHER, SMITH, SOWERS, SPENCE, SPRINKLE, SUTPHIN, TAYLOR, TILSON, TURMAN, WEDDLE, WEEKS, WHALEN, WILLIAMS, WINGATE, WOODRUFF, WOODS, plus over 2,000 others.

The pleasing format, arrangement of records by generations and birthdates in the generations, content, numbering system and introductory and instructional material makes the Book easy to use. It will be a handsome and worthy addition to any library and is certain to become a collectors item because of the limited copies printed.

TITLE: GENEALOGY & LOCAL HISTORY SERIES - VOL. 6
CITY, COUNTY, TOWN, & TOWNSHIP INDEX TO 1850 FED. CENSUS SCHE

AUTHOR: J. Carlyle Parker

PUBLISHED BY: Gale Research Company
 Book Tower, Detroit, Michigan 48226

For years many genealogists have been harassed by the lack of an index to the cities, towns, and townships of the 1850 U.S. Fed. population census schedules. The first problem that the lack of an index presents is the necessity of turning to road maps, atlases, gazettters, or place name literature to determine the county in which a town or city is located. This research step is essential, as all U.S. census schedules are arranged by county.

The second problem is that the schedules of many counties are to be found on more than one reel of microfilm. In most of these cases, it is necessary to consult more than one reel of microfilm to locate the desired town. The third problem is that communities and townships are not arranged in alphabetical order within county schedules.

Besides solving these three basic problems, this index also supplies the user with the Nat'l Archives microfilm order numbers and the microfilm call numbers used by the Genealogical Dept. Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of LDS in Salt Lake City, Utah. These two numbers are important to researchers, as the most readily available sources for the use of the census schedules on microfilm are the National Archives, with its eleven branches throughout the U.S. which loan the schedules via the inter-library loan services of any libraries, and the Genealogical Dept. which loans schedules for a small user fee for use in its over 273 branch libraries.

Besides cities, counties, towns, and townships, the index also includes boroughs, named census beats, districts, divisions, named election districts, grants, hundreds, parishes, plantations, named precincts, settlements, and villages. Most directional townships, e.g., east, north, south, and west, and all numerical census beats, census districts, election districts, precincts, and townships were not indexed. The names of post offices were not included in the 1850 census schedules and are, therefore, not included in this index.

The slave schedules have been excluded from this index because they include only the names of owners and the numbers of slaves. Also, none of the slave schedules include counties on more than one reel of microfilm. The index is arranged in one alphabetical order. There are no cross references, but there are some double entries that serve the same purpose.

AN INDEX TO THE BIOGRAPHEES IN 19th CENTURY CALIFORNIA
COUNTY HISTORIES

AUTHOR: J. Carlyle Parker

PUBLISHED BY: Gale Research Company, Book Tower, Detroit MI 48226

This compilation is an index to the biographees included in 61 Calif. county histories published between 1855 and 1898 for 47 of Calif California's 58 counties. The biographees are those of whom biographical sketches have been written. The names of parents, spouses, children, other relatives, and friends mentioned in biographical sketches have not been indexed in this compilation.

The approximately 16,500 index entries include full name of the biographee, when given, county of residence at the time the county history was published, the date of publication, the volume number in the case of one county history, and the beginning page of the biographical sketch.

Ranks and titles have been included to assist in the identification of biographees. However, they have been ignored in alphabetizing except when absolutely necessary.

Index is arranged in one alphabetical order. There no cross references, but some double entries that serve the same purpose. Names indexed were taken from the tables of contents, the lists of biographees, or, when necessary, from the text. Names are listed as they were spelled in the histories.

AUTHOR: Nora Lee Pollard

ORDER FROM: Academy Enterprises of New Orleans $18.50
Box 73354
Metairie, La. 70033

The Book of Landry is a rich source of Louisiana family history. It traces down to the present the family of Joseph Landry, an Acadian who was among the early settlers of St. James Parish above New Orleans.

Joseph Landry married Anne Cormier around 1768. They settled in St. James shortly afterwards; they had 10 children between 1770 and 1791. In 1797, their eldest son, Joseph, married Magdelaine Michel; they had 8 children who married into the Gautreaux, Thibodaux, Poche and Keller families. Other families that appear frequently in this volume include POIRIER, CAILLOUET, BOURGEOIS, LeBLANC, MICHEL AND OUBRE. The book includes an index of more than 2500 names.

Nora Lee Pollard is the archivist of the Catholic Diocese of Baton Rouge. The Book of Landry completes her invaluable four-volume history of the families of her grandparents. Previous volumes were: The Book of Clouatre, The Book of LeBlanc, and The Book of Caillouet.
