COMING LINDER BRITISH TOURS

Tours to Britain have been slated for September 1980 and June 1981, according to Bill Linder, author and noted leader of British educational programs in the genealogical-historical field.

Linder, chairman of the board of trustees of the International Society for British Genealogy and Family History (ISBGFH), has been promoting British-American genealogical relations for many years. His popular educational programs have brought Americans and top British genealogists together, resulting in such movements as the ISBGFH and the introduction of British genealogists as lecturers on the American scene.

The 6th and 7th British programs will embark on a new emphasis on British history as well as genealogy, Linder said. Linder is author of the best-selling genealogy beginner's book, How to Trace Your Family History (New York: Everest House, 1978, $6.95 hardcover; Fawcett Popular Library, 1979, $2.25 paperback).

Linder's educational tours are based in London. Highlights are lectures by up to as many as ten British notables, personal consultations with lecturers, orientation at the Society of Genealogists Library, time for sightseeing and research in London depositories, a visit to the ancient city of Canterbury and a visit to the nearby library of the Institute of Heraldic and Genealogical Studies, a reception at the College of Arms, a personalized group tour of London, and an exciting "medieval feast."

One of the chief appeals to his tours, Linder pointed out, is that participants develop their own travel itineraries. There is no group travel. One is not required to travel to a particular city to begin the trip--he can, at less expense, travel to London directly from the nearest international airport. The group convenes in London, and after the organized programs end, participants can either return home, stay on in England to do research or sightseeing, or they can travel on to Scotland, Ireland, or the Continent for a European vacation. Omission of the "tied-down" group travel, according to Linder, is a genuine feature that has added to the success of the trips for those who have participated in his past five programs.

Interested persons must enroll early for both tours. For particulars write: LINDER BRITISH TOURS, 8306 Cottage Street, Vienna, VA 22180.

FAMILIES REUNION

Fort St. Jean Baptiste des Natchitoches is being rebuilt, and a reunion for descendants of the colonial settlers of the Fort is planned for Friday and Saturday, July 18 and 19. A brochure is being prepared. It is hoped that many "cousins" of those known to have been within the jurisdiction of the Post of Natchitoches during the colonial years will come, meet with one another and add to their family knowledge to find new generations. You may contact Carol Wells, Assist. Archivist, Eugene P. Watson Memorial Library, Northwestern State University, Natchitoches, La. 71457.

ELMWOOD CEMETERY (2 miles north of Dogpatch, Ark, south of Harrison, Ark.)

The information of this area was copied from a pamphlet by Ozark Safari Campground, Harrison, Arkansas 72601 and submitted to us by Mrs. R. J. Glover, 1460 Claiborne Ave., Shreveport, La. 71103.

SOMETHING ABOUT THIS LAND

By an Arkansas Yankee

The area where we are situated was once known as the village of Elmwood. The name Elmwood still designates this part of Boone Co., but the original hamlet of Elmwood began, flourished, declined and really died all in the span of one century. Historians tell us that there were settlers in these parts in the early 1830s. Records from the 1838 tax listings show that some residents listed slaves as part of their holdings.

The village of Elmwood, whose hub was very close to our camp entrance was a part of the Crooked Creek township and, according to the 1890 Census, listed 10 families in this area. Much of the land in and around here could be purchased from the U.S. Gov. in the 1850s for $1.25 per acre. Settlers raised corn, wheat, cotton and tobacco. Farmers generally did not buy large parcels of land because the only land really needed was for cultivation. There were open ranges at that time so settlers merely marked their stock and let them roam through the vast woods and small natural prairies.

About a quarter mile south of our entrance, on the PD Flats road, was once the site of a one-room school. It was started about 1853, adjacent to the Elmwood Cemetery. There are still residents in the area who attended this school. Records indicate that it was discontinued in 1926.

The most evident feature of Elmwood today is the cemetery which can be seen from camp. An interesting feature of the cemetery is the grave site where an entire family of seven is buried. Local information has it that they were from Oklahoma, visiting in this area. Their automobile, believed to be a model "T", collided with a train. The bodies were laid out at a home near the cemetery and interment took place at the Elmwood Cemetery.

The city of Harrison was established in 1869. Captain W. Flick, a Union carpetbagger was the person responsible for the start of the City.

Much information for ancestral charts can be gathered from grave stones in cemeteries in the U.S. and Canada. In an article entitled "GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH IN CEMETERIES" by Edgar C. Paul, he suggests several good hints for getting and preserving the results of cemetery research; such as a good camera, clip board with plenty loose-leaf paper, pencils, a putty knife or scraper to remove moss or dirt, chalk to fill in letters and figures where there is insufficient contrast for a good picture. Good pictures add much to the authenticity and interest of ancestral charts. In many cases, the only way some information can be gotten is from a grave stone.

Pension was increased from $86.66 per annum to $366.66.

16th July 1850.

Printed Senate Document. Rpt. Com. No. 348, 32nd Cong. 1st Session. Dated Aug. 20, 1852. is included in the file. Referred to case of William Hazzard Wigg. (This is all abt. the capture of Major Wigg and others by the British at Charleston. They hanged Col. Hayne and destroyed much property of Major Wigg at his plantation, etc. Would add considerable to cost of this pension to copy, or make good abstract. Not knowing whether are a Wigg descendant and personally interested, don't like to do this. It does, however, give some family connections of the Wiggs. Photostat would be 4 pages - prob. around #3.20; or I could abstract it--probably for somewhat less. A copy would not be obtainable now. - KPE)

Several accounts and bills were filed showing Edward Barnwell as Col. Edward.

PENSION APPLICATIONS - - Continued - By Fern Ainsworth

Three pages of accounts were obtained from the Comptroller General's Office, Columbia, S.C. showing payments to "Captain" Edward Barnwell for various services; also for later duty as Major and Lt. Colonel. (Did not copy these, as they are actually printed in Salley's "Stub Indents of S.C." and reference to these books would give sufficient proof of service. - KPE

OLD BULLARD PLACE - This was a small family cemetery with several graaes in it. The trees have been cut and the cemetery plowed for cotton. The graves were "box tombs" and the bricks were stolen many years ago according to Mr. Sid Coleman. The one remaining slap is broken into two pieces and is laying under some bushes by the fence on FM 134 between Leigh and Jonesville, Harrison Co., Tex. Copied 10 June 1968 by B. R. Randolph.

CLAIBORNE GUARDIAN - Continued - Submitted by Margueritte G. Nation
(Clairborne Parish, La.)

He was a boyhood friend of Samuel L. Clement, better known as Mark Twain, who wrote Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn, etc. They lived in Hannibal Mo. Dr. Turner received his medical diploma from Iowa State University in 1865 and was first married in that state. After his wife's death he came to Louisiana and located at Homer, La. where he became the first Coroner of Claiborne Parish and practiced medicine for many years. He received a patent for a medical invention that he perfected. In 1877 F. M. Turner of Missouri, and accomplished gentleman and minister of the Primitive Baptist Church visited his brother, Dr. Silas Turner. Rev. Mr. Turner was a Democrat and a member of the Missouri Legislature. Dr. Turner's second wife was Mary Elizabeth Phipps, the daughter of Isaish Phipps of Claiborne Parish. She was born 18 September 1845 in Sumter Co., Ala. and died 1 July 1896 in Homer, La., buried in "Old Homer Cemetery".

(The above information from Old Homer Cemetery Records, "The Genie", January 1972; April 1978, The Claiborne Guardian and descendants, Mrs. Mary Trant (now deceased) and Mrs. Elizabeth Turner Kendrick, 600 Erie, Shreveport, La. 71106 who would like to correspond with descendants of the Turner and Phipps Families) MGN

NATCHITOCHE PARISH NOTES - By Fern Ainsworth

The Succession of Joseph Taurus was submitted by Mrs. Joannie Boyett, 9058 Southwood Dr., Shreveport, La. 71108. The table of distribution among the heirs of Joseph Taurus, who died in Natchitoches Parish many years ago, leaving six children, is shown as on file at the Natchitoches Parish Courthouse as worked up by attorneys Scarborough & Carver in 1903. Buis Couty was administrator. S. J. Henry was attorney for absent heirs.

"To the Honorable the Judge of the Eleventh Judicial District Court of Louisiana, in and for the Parish of Natchitoches.

The petition of F. T. Latter, a resident of the Parish of Natchitoches, respectfully represents,

That Joseph Taurus, died many years ago in the Parish of Natchitoches which was the place of his domicile at the time of his death.

He shows that the said Joseph Taurus left a certain claim against the United States Government as follows: Namely No. 288 in the Register and Receivers report of December 30th 1815 for 640 acres satisfied by location to the extent of 100 acres leaving a deciciency of 360 acres for which 360 acres the said succession is entitled to recover certificates of location.

He shows that in order to collect said claim, pay the taxes, debts and costs of administration and distribute the surplus among the heirs, if any present themeelves, it is necessary to open and administer said succession.

He shows that no heirs have ever presented themselves to claim said succession, and none are known to exist, wherefore the same is a vacant succession, and your petitioner is entitled to administer the same as Curator.

Petitioner prays that an inventory be taken of the property belonging to said succession, that petitioners application be published according to law, that an Attorney of absent heirs be appointed and after due delays and proceedins your petitioner be appointed Curator of said succession and for costs and general relief.

(Signed) Scarborough & Carver
Attorneys of Petitioner

O R D E R

Let an inventory and appraisement be made of the property belonging to the succession of Joseph Taurus, and let petitioners application be published for ten days according to law, and S. J. Henry, an Attorney at Law of the City of Natchitoches, is hereby appointed Attorney of absent heirs.

Thus done and signed officially on this the 1st day of June 1900.

(Signed) Charles N. Porter
Judge 11th Judicial Dist. La.

Succession of Joseph Taurus	Buis Couty Admin. to Dist Court	No. 2347 District Court Natchitoches Parish Probate Docket 600

In this case by reason of the law and evidence being in favor of the administrator, there being no opposition, the administrator has now fully administered the succession and having filed a full and final account of his gestion and having filed a tableau of distribution showing the manner of distributing the funds coming into his hands, and having distributed said funds in accordance with said tableau, except the amounts coming to the seven persons named in the petition to the court of April 25, -1904, and Strother, which shares of said eight persons were deposited in the Exchange Bank of Natchitoches to the credit of said parties by order of the court, and having proven said deposit in bank to the credit of said persons, and having also proven the distribution to all the proper other distributees as shown by the tableau of distribution, by proper voucher and other competent evidence filed in open court,

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the final account and tableau of distribution filed in the Succession of Joseph Taurus by Buis Couty administrator on November 30, 1903, as amended by petition of December 9, 1903, and as further amended by petition of April 27, 1904, be and the same is hereby homologated and made the judgment of the Court.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said Buis Couty be and he is hereby discharged from his trust, and that his bond be and the same is hereby cancelled.

TITLE: COWAN/LENOX AND NEXT OF KIN

AUTHOR: Mildred C. Siever

Publisher: Chigger Hill, P. O. Box 160, Adair, Oklahoma

This book is a very informative story of the COWAN and LENOX families. The first 18 chapters are devoted to "Cowan and Next of Kin". William Cowan was born in Scotland, immigrated to Virginia and married Mary Billups in 1773. His son moved his family to Missouri and a great grandson migrated to Okla. in 1907.

The last 17 chapters are "Lenox and Next of Kin" Charles Lenox was born in Glasgow, Scotland in 1754, was in Va. in 1777 and he and his son Charles, Jr. 16, fought in the Revolutionary War. They later moved to Ky. and then to Missouri.

She tells of the travels and adventures of both families the people who help them along the way and their neighbors. She tells of each child when it is born and follows their lines, their marriage and their children. When a person marries into the family, she tells the parents and all information she has learned.

There are lots of pictures and an index of all names appearing in the book. The index covers 32 pages.

TITLE: The Descendants Of Meredith Carter
AUTHORS: Sue Glenn Mary Day
1831 Grimmett Dr. 655 Buckelew St.
Shreveport, La. 71107 Shreveport, La. 71101

This story begins with MEREDITH CARTER, born 1 March 1823 and his wife, NANCY MARTIN, born Aug 1835. They were the parents of 5 children, and after Nancy's death 29 Dec 1861, Meredith married Susan Munderlyn. They were the parents of 2 children.

The history of these seven children is given with many interesting stories that were passed down through the family. Family sheets on children and descendants give dates and places of birth, marriages and deaths. In some cases, names are given of the parents of people entering the family by marriage.

There is a section on "Meet Your Cousins" and names and addresses are given of living relatives. There is an index of all names appearing in the book.

TITLE: SOUTHERN GARNERS
AUTHOR: Sam Garner, M.D. of Rome, Georgia

The author points out the various spelling and origins of the GARNERS, GARDNER, GARDINER. Most of the American GARNERS did not come from one single immigrant. However, most of the Southern Garners do seem to have possibly come from the GARNER-KEENE family. The author questions many concepts written by others on these families. He picks up where Ruth Ritchie and Sudi Rucker left off. Sam Garner, M. D. (author) states "his work is not the last word on these lines and hopes to interest other's into helping solve these problems". Many related families are listed in alphabetical order in back of book. This book is dedicated to the memory of Andrew Geston Garner 1880-1958.

TITLE: OUR SILVER HERITAGE

AUTHOR: Benjamin Stump Silver - Colonel (Ret.) U.S. Army

CO-AUTHOR: His wife, FRANCES AYLETTE (BOWEN) SILVER

Published by: Gatesville Printing Co., Gatesville, TX. 76528

This is the first of three volumes to be published on the history of Gershom and Millicent (Archer) Silver. Vol. I is about their descendants. Vol. II will cover Gershom's Colonial ancestors, and Vol. III will be about his English ancestors. A brief summary of Colonial and English ancestors is given in Vol. I which is published in a looseleaf 2 or 3 ring folder so that later additions can be added. It is numbered in a fashion to accommodate these additions and any changes or additions that may be needed.

The key to understanding relationships in this genealogy is the Constant Use of Master Charts found at the beginning of the book. All Master Charts should be used in conjunction with the proper chapter.

Gershom Silver was born 4 Mar 1725 in New Jersey, the son of James Silver and his second wife, Margaret, about 1750, he married Millicent Archer, the daughter of Benjamin Archer and Meleson Allen. Gershom moved from New Jersey to Hartford Co. (now Baltimore Co.) Maryland around 1763. In addition to family sheets with information on all known descendants, information is given from church records, family Bible records, family diaries, land records, newspaper accounts and other reliable sources of information found about members of the family.

There are thumbnail sketches of collateral families, BOYD, CHEW, COOPER, HARLAN, HOOPMAN, HOPKINS, MACKLEM, ROGERS, STUMP, WARNOCK and HARPER.

Signatures of Hartford Countians, Politics, obituaries and weddings in Hartford Co., Maryland and Humor in General are covered in later chapters. An index is given of all names appearing in the book and scattered throughout the book are pictures of members of the family.

This is a very thorough history of the family and descendants of Gershom Silver.

B O O K R E V I E W S

Paul F. Stahls Jr. of Caddo and Natchitoches Parishes, who now serves as deputy director of advertising and publicity for the Louisiana Office of Tourism in Baton Rouge, is looking for all antebellum and colonial homes and buildings of Central and North Louisiana.

The writer is a member of the North Louisiana Historical Association and Le Comite des Archives de la Louisiane, and he is the author of Plantation Homes of the Lafourche Country (Pelican Publishing Co., 1976) and Plantation Homes of the Teche Country (Pelican, 1979).

Lafourche Country covers the historic structures of Bayou Lafourche before traveling westward through Houma and Morgan City. Teche Country picks up in Morgan City, then travels up the length of Bayou Teche and ends by meandering through Grand Coteau, Lafayette, Abbeville, Crowley, Jennings and Lake Charles. Both books feature the photography of Leonard Hingle of Thibodaux and plantation paintings by the great 19th century Louisiana artist Adrien Persac (who created the famed "Norman's Chart of the Mississippi River from Natchez to New Orleans," which is still in print).

Stahls's new endeavor, to be called Plantation Homes of the Cotton Country, will begin in Opelousas and cover all parishes of the northern half of the State, except those immediately adjacent to the Mississippi. (The river parishes are being saved for the fourth of this five-book series.)

Though the titles of his books always include the words "Plantation Homes," Stahls stresses that any structure dating to the 1860s or earlier--rural dwellings, townhouses, churches, schools, stores, and even significant outbuildings--will be included. He urges all persons with knowledge of such structures to contact him at 524 Highland Park Drive, Baton Rouge 70808. He would also appreciate your naming other persons whom you believe to be knowledgeable about the historic structures of particular towns or parishes.

Though the size and beauty of the first two volumes of this series make them "coffee table" books of the first order, they are laid out in a very utilitarian fashion. Each book is presented in the form of one continuous tour, with precise directions given from building to building along the way. Those directions are boon enough for Louisianians who like to drive in search of our old homes, but the greatest contribution of this series is the appearance of many buildings, large and small, that have never before been included in Louisiana plantation books.

Autographed copies of the first two in the series are available at the author's address (see above). Lafourche Country is $12.50. Teche Country is $12.95, and postage is 80¢ for a single volume and 50¢ for each additional book.

"I fancy that Cotton Country will be a valuable book even if we only manage to find half of the significant buildings up there," says the author, "but I'll consider it incomplete if we miss a single one." Please help by sharing your knowledge with the writer of what will be the first book ever devoted to the homes of your region.

A new publication offered by Fern Ainsworth:

The author has done extensive research in the U. S. Archives; most eastern and southern states, as well as some foreign countries. Her newest publication is the "PRIVATE LAND CLAIMS OF LOUISIANA".

When the U.S. purchased Louisiana in 1803, there were many people who lived in the area who had received grants from either England, France, Mexico or Spain, and to be assured of ownership, they had to prove their claims. This book is a list of those who claimed lands by virtue of a grant previous to 1798, and often in the disposition made, there is much genealogical data. Sometimes the case had to be settled by the U.S. Supreme Court. These records and all supporting depositions are available at the U. S. Archives.

To obtain the record, consult the index, give the name of Claimant and Docket Number - be sure to specify "Private Land Claim".
