I am so grateful for the enthusiastic support shown by the Board, Committee Chairmen and the members since I became President. It is very heart-warming, and I appreciate it more than I can express. THANKS.

There is a very acute problem of vital interest to every citizen of Louisiana and of particular concern to genealogical, historical and every other facet of research pertaining to Louisiana. This is the fate of our archives building for which funds have been appropriated by the State Legislature. This is the second time funds have been appropriated by that body for this specific purpose, but for some unexplained (?) reason there was no archives -- no program, and there is still nothing -- that is except another appropriation from the same distinguished body of officials duly elected by the people of this state, and is this program also to go the same way the previous one did?

This must NOT happen because Louisiana is too rich in history and records extending back further even than at least one of the original thirteen colonies. We cannot let the evidence of our great heritage deteriorate and/or disappear because of the lack of a facility to house them.

I am absolutely embarrassed to take out-of-state visitors to our quonset hut type of architecture we call an archives - really a relic of World War II. If you feel as I do, that we must not let this opportunity slip away from us, call Gov. Treen, send him a telegram and write him a letter asking that the whole amount appropriated by the legislature for an archives complex be placed in the "TO BE FUNDED SECTION OF THE CAPITAL OUTLAY BILL". Send not only to: Hon. David C. Treen, Governor of Louisiana, P. O. Box 44004, Baton, Rouge, La. 70804, but also to your state representative and senator c/o State Capitol Bldg., Baton Rouge, La.

This needs to be sent in immediately to be included in this year's funding. Please swamp the Capitol with your sentiments today!

Due to the National Genealogical Society holding their annual meeting in Atlanta, Ga., May 7-8 & 9, the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Assn. will not conduct their annual congress, and we urge your attendance in Atlanta. If enough people express their desire to go, we will charter a bus, but we must know immediately so reservations can be confirmed.

We have planned to conduct genealogical classes twice a year, in May and September, covering subjects from the beginning to advanced genealogy. In addition to this we will have a MINI-Class of 5 - 10 minutes every month preceding the lecture which will be a discussion on some phase of genealogical procedures and research.

I hope you are pleased with the programs of the Association this year, and ask for everyone's cooperation and enthusiasm.

EDITOR'S PAGE

When you receive this issue of THE GENIE, the crocuses, jonquils, tulips and all the other bulbs will be blooming, or at least sticking their heads out of the earth for a new beginning. What a lovely time of the year!

I hope the flu bug is gone and all of our readers are feeling better after the long winter months. It is also time for Spring house cleaning. Why don't we all pledge to do some Genealogy cleaning also. Let's take all those little pieces of paper in desks, purses, notebooks, and organize them. One way is to use index cards, alphabetize them and throw away old notes etc. once they are recorded. Take time to go over your old records.

I get a new perspective each time I do this. Answer those letters, if only to show the courtesy of appreciation. It's a new year, a new beginning - let's get busy. What a waste to have used so much time, energy and money to have someone that did not know its genealogical value dispose of it. None of us know what might befall us tomorrow.

Your Editor is not an exception to the rule. I have many things to organize in my research. If we do just a little each day, first thing you know its meaning is even clearer to us.

Thanks to each of you for your encouragement, because without you, the readers, there would be no GENIE. A special thanks to Lewis Thornhill. He will never know how Juanita Racine (Assistant Editor) and I thank him for his patience and thorough instructions. He turned the printing machine into something more mellow than a monster for two ladies that had very cold feet. We are still novices, but trying real hard to bring some sunshine into each of your lives.

Happy Hunting,

JEANIE BOYETT
EDITOR

The following letter was copied from the Southwest Arkansas Regional Archives
Washington, Arkansas 71862

Mine Creek,
April 9th, 1850

My Dear Friend Allen:

Your kind epistle of the 18th of March is safe at hand and I hasten to answer it though the mail will not leave till Saturday and I will not close my letter till then.

You doubtless remember the copy of a letter I showed you the morning you left my house. I copied and sent it to Miss Elizabeth Scott, and in due time received an answer that it was unfavorable.

I wrote the letter the 7th of February, received the answer the first of March and witnessed the marriage between her and William Hooks on the 24th of April. There was very few present. We had a fine supper and enjoyed ourselves well.

I had the pleasure of looking at Miss Susban but unfortunately she cannot talk yet.

On Thursday last I was at a quilting. We had music and _____ dancing. We danced from 4 o'clock in the evening until sun rise the next morning. Quite a pleasant party indeed it was. Miss Betty was quite a Belle. Indeed she was looking quite beautiful. I have never seen her looking more beautiful.

We got Miss Martha Crossland to dance and Miss Betsy Wright. We had about ten dancing ladys.

James (your brother) and Ira Holman started last Saturday to California. I regretted very much to see them go particularly as he appeared to be in a great deal of trouble. I fear the wido will be his ruin. She appeared to be as much affected as him. They were both crying all the time.

Miss Hellen McElroy is at home and looks very pretty. I saw her last Saturday and do not intend it to be long before I see her again. And I saw Miss Susan Scrogin on Sunday. She was looking very aimiable indeed. She is a very pretty girl.

I am really sorry it is so far to Virginia. But for the distance I should certainly go for the young lady who sent me the Book Mark. Present my complements to her and say to her that I have so often been disappointed by females that I have almost dispaired. And to think of going to Virginia without some assurance I can not ----

It is getting late, I must close for tonight.

Friday, April the 12th

I am again at the pen though nothing of importance has transpired in my knowledge.

Page 2 of "Dear Allen" letter from Mine Creed on April 9, 1850

I finished Mr. Crossland's gin week before last. It was good business. He has finished ginning but I do not know how many bales he made.

The weather has been so bad that I have got on very slow with my building though I have most of the plank prepared. I will get it enclosed next week. Then I will soon finish. I will get done in May or by the first of June.

The weather is extremely cold for this time of the year. We had considerable frost this morning. The last week in March we had several very cold nights. The ground was frozen a half inch deep. All the fruit, I fear, is killed. There are some trees that are not entirely killed but injured smartly.

The most of the corn was up the first frost and was bit down. A number of the farmers have to plough up and plant over. The farmers generally commenced planting cotton last week.

The cholera is again in our rivers. I am told that it is quite bad. Harda Williams of Fulton is dead. He started to New Orleans and died of cholera above Shreveport. His remains were sent back and interred at Fulton.

Johnson and Cheatham have returned from below. They had the cholera though not bad. It is entirely confined to the River and particular to old boats.

I hope by the time that this gets to hand that you may be doing a good business in the way of courting. You said that when weddings came that you would commence and there are so many pretty girls you can make choice of them. I hope you are enjoying yourself finely attending those weddings and courting the girls.

I think I shall take your advice and when I finish the church shall do some courting for myself.

Dr. Cannon is going to leave the colony. He speaks of locating in Louisiana. Dr. Horn has come there and is trying to get a school for his wife. Augustus Garland is teaching school in the colony, this time at the upper house.

Do not forget to present my compliments to the Lady who sent me the Book Mark. Be sure to write when this comes to hand. Do not fail to write and give me all the news.

Believe me as ever with the truest
Your friend until death.

Jown W. Hull.

A HISTORY OF IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CATHOLIC CHURCH, NATCHITOCHEs, LA.
1717 - 1973

According to available records, the history of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Natchitoches begins in 1717. It was in that year that the Franciscan, Father Antonio Margil de Jesus, founded the San Miguel Mission at the Spanish garrison of Los Adayes. In that same year, Father Margil, learning that the French post in Natchitoches had no priest, walked the twenty-one miles to attend to the religious needs of the Catholics there.

There is no record of a church in the French post of St. Jean Baptiste from its beginning until 1728. However, the Commandant, Louis Juchereau de St. Dennis, and his wife, Dona Manuela, established a chapel in their home; and the Spanish friars of Los Adayes - Franciscans - visited Natchitoches for religious services, since at that time no French priest had been assigned to the post.

In 1728, Father Raphael requested 600 livres from the Company of the Indies in order to support a French Capuchin priest in Natchitoches. That year or the next, Father Maximin was sent. He did not stay long, but while he was there, the first chapel was built in the fort and was dedicated to St. Francis of Assisi. A 1733 plan of the fort shows this small church. However, from 1729 to 1734, there was no resident priest, and the Friars from Los Adayes ministered to the Catholics in Natchitoches.

In 1734, St. Denis asked for permission to build a church. It was in that same year that a Jesuit priest, Father Vitry, arrived in the village and construction was begun on the site of what is now McClung Drug Store. It is in this church that St. Denis was buried on June 12, 1744.

An inventory made on May 9, 1738, for the Rev. Father Jean Francois de Civray of the Capuchin Order, gives a detailed description of the church and its contents.

"The Church was twenty feet long and twenty-four feet wide, built on nine foot logs with double beams filled in between with adobe. It had six windows with shutters and iron work, a big double door with iron work, a small door with a lock. The building was covered with shingles on planks. There were eighteen brand new benches, eight feet long, with backs." The inventory also lists all the vestments and religious articles in the church, as well as a "thirteen and a half pound bell, set up outside the church."

The priest's home is also described as being 30 feet long by 18 feet wide, made of wood, covered from top to bottom with shingles on cedar logs, with adobe foundation.

There were few priests in Natchitoches from 1750-69 because of unstable conditions brought on by the French and Indian War. At the end of the war, Spain took over Louisiana. Since the French were no longer a threat in North Louisiana, Spain in 1769 closed the Presidio of Los Adayes and the Mission of San Miguel.

Spanish priests were sent to Natchitoches, and because of the language differences, much confusion ensued. Dona Manuela, St. Denis' wife, was of Spanish descent and naturally preferred the Spanish priests, but most of the other settlers were French and spoke no Spanish. When the priests were not available, laymen presided at burials of the dead. Under the Spanish rule, Natchitoches became the center of religion for all of Northern Louisiana.

In 1771, Athanase de Mezieres, then Commandant of the post, was ordered to make needed repairs or to rebuild the St. Francis Church. With the help of Father Stanislaus, a third church was built. It was made of stone and stood behind the old church, facing south.

On February 28, de Mezieres had the cornerstone hewn. The words were in Latin. Translated, they read "To God the best and the greatest. In the year of salvation 1771, this stone was laid in the foundation of the holy and venerable church in due order and solemnity by command and in the name of Don Luis de Unzaga, ruling in this province in behalf of his Catholic majesty for all posterity to remember."

Father Stanislaus left in 1774, and a year passed before Father Luis de Quintanilla came to replace him. The settlement was without a priest during that time.

Between 1786 and 1795, a French secular priest, Father Jean Delvaux was accused of participating in revolutionary activities in the parish. He was taken to Havana for trial by the Inquisition. During his absence, a layman by the name of David Cantor began to "exercise ecclesiastical functions," performing rites of the church. When word reached New Orleans as to Cantor's activities, he was ordered before the ecclesiastical court. Father Pierre Pavie, also a French secular, assumed charge of the Parish.

On April 25, 1793, the Diocese of Louisiana and the Floridas was formed, with a bishop headquartered in New Orleans. (Until this time, Louisiana belonged to the Diocese of Quebec). The first Bishop was Don Luis Ignacio Maria de Penalver y Cardenas of Havana. In November, 1796, he visited Natchitoches.

However, on July 20, 1801, Bishop Penalver was transferred to Guatemala. This marked the beginning of a dark period of fourteen years when Louisiana was without a bishop. The uncertain political status of the territory, the upheaval brought on by the sale of Louisiana to France, and the subsequent 1803 purchase by the United States led to a disastrous era in the Church. Rome was reluctant to assign a Bishop to Louisiana since it was uncertain which country would next own the colony. In 1803, Pope Pius VII placed the Diocese under Bishop Carroll of Baltimore.

By 1812, Natchitoches was the only parish north of the Red River. In 1815, Father William Dubourg was made Bishop of New Orleans. Since there were only 18 priests in the entire diocese, Bishop Dubourg went to Europe to appeal for money and priests. As a result, the Lazarists (or Vincentians) came to the Diocese.

It was in 1813 that the Louisiana State Legislature passed an Act of Incorporation for the Parish of St. Francis of Assisi. This was done in order to protect lands given to the church by colonial land grants. It is interesting to note that the Act of Incorporation provided "That the said congregation shall be administered by five church wardens," and that "no person shall be eligible to the place of church warden unless he be twenty-five years of age, a married man, and owner of lands in the parish."

In the Church records dated March 22, 1821, Bishop Dubourg recorded his first visit to Natchitoches. He described the church as being in a "ruinous state." He says: "I saw with sorrow the decadence of everything pertaining to religion... Faith turned cold... these deplorable ills are the result of an unfortunate litigation which has robbed the church of all her properties, and lack of instruction which for more than fifteen years afflicts this parish."

During his visit, he confirmed some thirty adults and tried to make plans for the building of a new church. However, after he left, the pastor, Father Maynes, greatly discouraged by the Bishop's remarks, gave up the pastorate of the church; for nearly three years, there was again no priest in the community.

In 1823, disaster again struck the Natchitoches Catholic Church when a fire, originated in the church, destroyed not only the church, but also sixty-five homes. It was asserted that "Joe," a free Negro who was in charge of the building, lit all of the candles, and because he was drunk, neglected to put them out. A high wind began blowing, causing the curtains to catch on fire and destroy the church and the other nearby buildings. As a result, Mr. P. A. Rost sued the head of the Board of Wardens for appointing a "careless caretaker." Rost asked for $2,000 for damage to his property. The District Court found the church at fault, but the State Supreme Court reversed the decision in 1824 on a legal technicality.

After the fire, arrangements were made for services to be held in a public hall. In 1825, when Bishop Dubourg again visited Natchitoches, he was told of the efforts of the ladies of the congregation to make preparations for his coming. Father Anduze accompanied the Bishop and together they taught catechism classes for a whole month, confirming a large number of parishioners, baptizing 350 infants, and "rehabilitating many marriages."

The Bishop had another reason for remembering this particular visit to Natchitoches, since on his way, when crossing Bayou Boeuf on a fallen log, the log rolled a bit, and the Bishop fell into the water. He was rescued by his guide.

Father Anduze remained in Natchitoches as pastor there, and also at "St. John's at Cloutierville, at Isle Breville, and Riviere aux Cannes, likewise at the Appalache village."

St. Francis Catholic Church was again the subject of an Act of the Louisiana Legislature when on February 27, 1826, authority was given to the church to hold a lottery to raise no more than $20,000 to build a new church. In the next two years, $18,000 was realized and the new church was formally dedicated on October 5, 1828, by the pastor, Father Jean Baptiste Blanc, and Abbe Mascaroni, Vicar.

On March 17, 1838, the church again burned along with several other important buildings in town. In April of 1839, the Bishop returned to Natchitoches, and in an entry in the Church Registers stated that the wardens were seconding the energetic efforts of the pastor and that he believed that under their administration, this church would soon be more beautiful than it was "before its almost entire destruction."

Between 1839 and 1842 a new church was constructed, the fifth Catholic Church building in Natchitoches. It was on the side of the present Peoples' Bank.

In 1840, the Bishop asked the Lazarist fathers to take charge of the parish, and Father Guistiniani served until 1848. It was during his pastorate that a serious conflict arose between the wardens and the priest. The difficulty came to a climax over the burial of a prominent Catholic. The pastor refused Christian burial since the individual had refused the sacraments and had not amended his life before his death. Upon threats being made, the pastor locked the church. At the instigation of some of the wardens, a window was forced open by a boy, the front door opened, and the funeral services conducted by a local school teacher. There followed a period of several years of troubled times, but during the pastorate of Father Anthony Andries, peace again prevailed between the Board of Wardens and the pastor.

In May 1847, the Sisters of the Sacred Heart were invited by Bishop Blanc to open a school in Natchitoches. The citizens of Natchitoches purchased for them the Bullard mansion which was located on land which is now part of the campus at Northwestern State University, where three of the columns of this old house are still standing. In May 1848, the Sisters bought a small house adjoining the property and established a day school there. In 1850, they built a two-story house to accommodate 90 pupils on the location of old St. Mary's on Touline Street. The Sacred Heart nuns remained until 1876 and were replaced by the Sisters of Mercy who left in 1879.

In 1850, the Archdiocese of New Orleans was created. Natchitoches became a Diocese in 1853 and the church's name was changed to St. Mary's with August Martin as the first Bishop. He was consecrated on November 30 and installed on December 11, 1853. At this time, there were six parishes in the diocese, one school, 25,000 Catholics, 22,000 square miles, and 4 priests.

The year 1855 marked the building of a seminary to house twelve seminarians, and it was used for this purpose until 1878. The building is still standing today and is used for a Church Museum. Rev. Pierre Felix Dicharry was the rector of the seminary. Back of the Seminary Building, on Trudeau St., is the Bishop's Residence erected by Bishop Martin. At one time, a similar but larger edifice was directly across from the Residence on the corner of Second and Trudeau Streets, with a wide brick walk between the two. The latter one is no longer standing. In 1856, Bishop Martin opened St. Joseph's College. More than 100 boys were enrolled.

In December of 1856, the name of the church was again changed, this time to the Church of the Immaculate Conception. During the next year, on December 12, 1857, plans were completed and contracts signed for the building of the present, the sixth, church. Because of a shortage of funds, the towers had to be left off. The building remained unfinished for thirty years, at which time Bishop Durier, who had become Bishop of Natchitoches on March 19, 1885, used his own funds to complete and decorate it. The present sanctuary and sacristies were added then, also the domes on the towers. The Bishop also built the altar and added the tile floor.

In August of 1863, St. Joseph's College was forced to close because of the Civil War. The buildings were used as a temporary hospital for Confederate forces. In 1864, Federal forces wrecked and looted St. Joseph's College, but it was restored in 1870.

In 1870, Bishop Martin had 25 chapels and churches in the Diocese. There were 17 priests, 7 academies for girls, 4 schools for boys, and 5 co-educational schools.

It was in January of 1870 that the Board of Trustees for the town of Natchitoches passed the following resolution: "Resolved that, that portion of ground belonging to the Corporation of the Town of Natchitoches now used as a Catholic Cemetery, on the south side of St. Denis Street, be donated to the Catholic Congregation irrevocably as a cemetery, and that the Rt. Rev. Bishop Martin be notified of this donation."

On April 22, 1877, Rt. Rev. Francis Xavier Leray was consecrated as the new bishop. Because of financial difficulties in New Orleans, he was appointed administrator of financial affairs for the Archdiocese of New Orleans, and was therefore situated there, leaving Father Felix Dicharry in charge. One change made by Bishop Leray was that he ordered that all preaching and correspondence be done in English. Heretofore, most of the documents were in Spanish or in French.

On March 19, 1885, Father Antoine Durier was consecrated as the third Bishop of Natchitoches. Soon after his arrival, the rectory was presented to him by a friend in New Orleans. It was built there, dismantled, and shipped to Natchitoches by boat, and then reassembled.

In 1888, the Congregation of Divine Providence opened St. Mary's Academy and the St. Francis School for blacks. In 1906, the Sisters erected a two-story brick building which was used until 1967. They taught in Natchitoches until May 1971.

In 1904, upon the death of Bishop Durier, Father Cornelius Van de Ven was consecrated Bishop and installed at Natchitoches on December 21. It was at his instigation that the See City of the Diocese was moved to Alexandria where "its many railroad facilities would give him more ready access to all parts of the diocese." On August 6, 1910, the Diocese of Natchitoches was suppressed and the Diocese of Alexandria was erected.

NATCHITOCHE PARISH NOTES

By Fern Ainsworth

The Natchitoches Parish Notes article printed in the January 1981 issue contained the last of the 1850 Census of Natchitoches Parish, La., and this issue will contain data pertaining to the HOLLAND family in La. Space in THE GENIE will not permit using all the material on hand, but plans are under way to privately publish materials not used; i.e. Va., S.C., Ga., Tenn., Ala., Miss., Ark., and Texas Holland records.

The parents of George Washington Holland have as yet to be proven, but it is my belief that his grandfather was Harris Holland - Household #17 on the 1850 Census, Natchitoches Parish, La. His father could possibly be John C. Holland - Household #1 on 1850 Census, Natchitoches Parish, or it may have been the Jerry (Jeremiah) Holland - Household #237 on 1850 Census, Natchitoches Pr., La. - age 30, b. Miss., who m. Martha Ann E. Sanford on 5 Sept 1846 as shown on Natchitoches Parish Marriages in this article of THE GENIE.

Census records lead me to believe he had brothers, Greely, Henry, Thomas and Abner P. George Washington, as shown on 1900 Census, Sabine Parish, La., shows he was b. April 1877 (which is definitely wrong, as it would be impossible to have married in 1885 at age 8). The record was copied incorrectly or the enumerator wrote it wrong. He was probably born in 1867. George W. Holland, b. Apr 1877 (wrong), La., m. Nancy A. Morse, (b. Aug 1869) the 19 Nov 1885 and was living in Ward #1, Middle Creek, Sabine Parish, La. All the children did not appear on the 1900 census, but names were obtained from descendants living in Vowells Mill, La. (Natchitoches Parish) at the present time.

There have been many Hollands listed in cemeteries published in previous GENIs and I have much more data on the Holland Family. If you will write, sending a SASE, I'll share what I have.

In search for the HOLLAND family one should consider all the variant spellings such as HOLAN, HOLEN, HOLLAND.

Since this was typed, my dear Aunt Porthenice Delanious (Aunt Dean) Morris has passed away, Thursday, March 5, 1981. Had she lived four more days, she would have been 96 years old and this article is submitted as a tribute to her.

At this time, while at Provencal I visited Exie Foshee, the daughter of George W. Holland who said to me, "That George W. Holland's father was Henry Hartha Holland. He had a brother who lived at Hornbeck, Louisiana. Henry Holland also had a sister named Rebecca, who married a Mr. Hale who moved to Texas."

PARKIN'S GUIDE TO TRACING YOUR FAMILY TREE IN MISSOURI

BY: Robert E. Parkin

ORDER FROM: Genealogical Research & Productions

6619 Clayton Road - Suite 5A

St. Louis, MO 63117

PRICE: $10.50 postpaid

Anyone acquainted with genealogical research in Missouri will find this guide to be quite revolutionary. A little known fact is that the State required counties to take census enumerations every four years from 1821 to 1880; experts maintained that none of the actual heads of family enumerations exist today - From various sources they have found more than twenty of these - A whole new resource and they are convinced that other State censuses will be found in Missouri's courthouses.

Often overlooked is the fact that Missouri, not a member of the Confederate States of America, paid a pension to Confederate Veterans of the Civil War until 1911, when it was declared unconstitutional. The Missouri Adjutant General's Archives has the files for the pensions, including that of the infamous outlaw-leader, Cole Younger.

The Guide also offers a major break-through for blacks, researching their former slave ancestors in Missouri. In 1865, the state provided for recording of marriages of slaves, along with the listing of their children with their ages.

In addition to general sections on pre-statehood Missouri, formation of counties, State and Federal censuses and census indexes, and information about the major genealogical research centers, the Guide offers a county by county bibliography of publications, listing of original records still in each county and the records which have been microfilmed and may be searched in the vastly expanded Missouri Archives in Jefferson City.

Pepple tracing family trees thru local records in Missouri need this guide. 7 x 8½ - soft cover - 248 pages.

6619 Clayton Road - Suite 5-A

St. Louis, MO 63117

A little known fact is that Missouri required the counties to take census enumerations every four years from 1824 to 1880. Until publication of "PARKIN'S GUIDE TO TRACING YOUR FAMILY TREE IN MISSOURI" no one believed any of the Heads-of-Family enumerations actually existed. Because of the Civil War turmoil this "1864 Census of Gasconade County" is especially important. It is the only one for the year 1864 known to exist; many were probably burned in the 2nd fire (1911) in the capitol at Jefferson City. 7 X 8½ - 64 pages plus 13 page index - soft cover.

TITLE: THEY CAME TO GEORGIA - The Genealogy Of The Families Formon -
Boisclair - Walker - Beers - Lacy

AUTHOR: Mary W. Meadows

ORDER FROM: Mrs. E. Martin Meadows

6417 White Oak Road

Columbia, S.C. 29206

PRICE: $30.00

This well documented and illustrated book is a genealogical and historical compilation divided into three sections. The first section is the genealogy of the FORMON - BOISCLAIR families and it is most unique. History has not dealt in any significant way with the French emigrants from Saint Dominique, West Indies. The author has done much research on the history of this land and its people. Valuable material as to the political, social and economic upheaval which eventually destroyed this island paradise is presented with the innerplay of this family who lived during that era.

Escaping from the uprisings on the island, they landed in Savannah, Ga., then moved to Augusta and with other French refugee families formed a colony. They married into the Barrett, Glascock, Labuzan, Roff, and Jones families. Later generations married into Harper, Simmons, Thompson, Riddick, Dempsey, Marriot, Kinchley, Murray, Kiker Williams and Love families. They spread westward into North Georgia, Ala., Ark., Miss., Texas and New Mexico.

The second section is the Walker and Lacy families who came from Charles City and New Kent Counties, Virginia. They were well established in America by the 18th century. Information and sketches of allied Virginia ancestors included are the Menge, Valentine, Freeman, Larkey and Wyatt families.

Now buried within the confines of the historic arsenal or Walker Cemetery in Augusta, Ga. are the four Walker brothers, their sister and many of their descendants. They had married into the Talbot, Creswell, Graves, Clayton, Christian and Tyler families. Later generations married into Regail, Reab, Rossignol, Johnston, Milligan, Powell, Griffin, Crane, Bowen, Norvell, Carey, Maytag, Mitchell, Nixon, Baker, Hendricks and Twiggs families.

The 3rd section deals with the New England families of Beers, Sturges and Belcher that settled in Savannah, Charleston and Augusta, Ga. The Beers' family became allied with the Edwards, Studdard, Tuthill, and Huntington families. The Beers moved from Savannah to Augusta and their descendants are now living in Georgia and throughout the United States. They are Campbell, Oxford, O'Quin, Broad, Redwine, Merkl and others.

This genealogy presents complete vital records of birth, baptism, marriage, property deeds, wills, inventories of estates, war records, family letters, plus many adventures that these people experienced during their pilgrimages through life. From the Archives in Paris to the court-houses across the country, these people have been traced. 9 X 6 - 282 pages - hardback - fully indexed.

TITLE: WEST JERSEY UNDER FOUR FLAGS

BY: Ralph K. Turp

ORDER FROM: The Darrance & Co.
35 Cricket Lane
Ardmore, PA. 19003

PRICE: $10.00

Dr. Turp provides not only a chronicle of events, but a story full of human interest of West Jersey, the section of New Jersey settled in the seventeenth century by exiled Swedes. This area originally known as New Sweden, is rich in history and is in many ways typical of most of the early colonies.

West Jersey - Under Four Flags depicts the way of life of the people of West Jersey from the time of the earliest colonial settlements to the present day.

This book is based on the history of one family, and therefore, a continuing thread of identity and progression is formed. It is an off-beat human story of the Swedes of New Sweden, their assimilation into the English-dominated society, and the ways of life in West Jersey as told through the eyes of an exiled Swede and his descendants against the background of National and State affairs which affected the people of the area.

From the plantations to the bog iron furnaces to the taverns along the way, the reader travels the road of progress in one of the first settlements in America. This is a travelogue through history which should not only interest the New Jerseyites but anyone whose eye is caught by a fascinating report of the growth of the nation. 6 X 9 - hard cover - 305 pages - indexed.

1981 MEMBERSHIP (with 6 surnames received)

Our membership list is not indexed or pages numbered. It is for our readers' convenience. Many members did not get their 6 surnames in for the April edition. We will print any that come in late in future quarterlies. We are sorry, because of space, we must limit it to 6 surnames each year. Telephone numbers are not printed; addresses are complete.

If we missed anyone's membership or surnames, let us know. All that come in after publication will be listed in the July 1981 quarterly. Many of our members are actively working on the surname of their membership. We did not include these, except when requested. Because of space, it is assumed this is one of your surnames.

SHREVE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

I know that many of you, along with me, would like to thank Wrenette Whartenby for her help at the Shreve Memorial Library. I asked her to give us some tips on how to come prepared to do our best research. This is her reply. Thanks again Wrenette, these should help both our new and our more experienced researchers.

Jeanie Boyett
Editor

The new downtown library of the Shreve Memorial Library system was opened to the public in October 1980. The Genealogy Department of Shreve Memorial Library is located on the third floor of the new facility.

A few facts about the library might be helpful to potential researchers. There is no free library parking. However, meter parking and parking lots are in the immediate vicinity. The library does not provide facilities in the building for smoking, eating or drinking, but cafes are conveniently located in the downtown area. Hours of the Genealogy Department are 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Some knowledge of basic library use will greatly increase the success and satisfaction gained from library research in genealogy or any other field. The following suggestions may be helpful:

1. Bring along paper and pencil and your notes from previous research.
2. Learn to use the card catalog. It is the most valuable tool for finding material in any library. Ask the librarian to explain use of the card catalog and arrangement of books and microfilm, if necessary.
3. Examine book prefaces and introductions for explanation of abbreviations, symbols, and indexing systems used in books.
4. Fully record the sources of your information. For books include the call number, author, title and page number. Microfilm census citations should include census year, state, county and page number. Cite other sources as fully as possible.

Many people plan ahead before a library visit and make a list of specific things to look for and sources to check, and this method seems to be helpful to them.

While no library can hold the answers to all genealogical problems, please remember that the library is a rich source of information for the researcher. We hope that these suggestions will enable you to use the library more effectively.
