The Genie is published quarterly. Each member receives four issues for each year of membership. All material published in The Genie is compiled and contributed by the members. The Genie invites exchange of periodicals with other genealogical-historical organizations publishing data of general interest. We regret that we cannot exchange with limited family organizations, but invite them to send samples of their publications for a brief review since many of these family organizations are of a great value in information on the family covered by them.

All members of the staff of The Genie are volunteers.

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Fellow Members:

Happy to report that 1989 was a good year for the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association. The genealogy classes held in early summer were well attended. Through the Book Fair-Seminar in August, we helped genealogists with a donation of 85 books to Shreve Memorial Library. The Tennessee Archives Workshop made us aware of the excellent index system available for the bounty and land warrant records for those who served in the militia, Revolutionary War, War of 1812, some Indian Wars and the Mexican War.

We are dedicated to preserving in print the genealogical information found in Family Bibles, wherever located. If you have access to any Family Bible, please copy the genealogical information, the title page and the date of publication of the Bible. Send it with the current owner's name and address to the Genie. Future genealogists will thank you for saving information which is often lost when the Bible changes hands.

We would like to remind family historians, book publishers and genealogical societies that the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association is still soliciting books or family histories that are "new on the market" After a review in the Genie they will be placed in the genealogy room of Shreve Memorial Library.

Our books have been audited. The report was accepted at our annual meeting in December. The budget will be presented in February. Carroll Goynes was elected to the board and Trenkins McClain was re-elected as a trustee. We appreciated their willingness to serve and welcome them to the board.

The Ark-La-Tex Association at all times wishes to be responsive to the needs of its members. We welcome your suggestions and your criticisms, most of all we would welcome material to print in the Genie. We hope you have found some new sources of information this year and took a few bricks from that wall we sometimes find surrounding an "interesting" ancestor.

THE FAMILY OF JEREMY HILLIARD

By Jimmy Oliphant

The first of this family in America seems to have been John Hilliard, born in 1617, who came over in the ship "Expedition" from Gravesend, England, November 20, 1635, at the age of 18 years. He settled in York County, Virginia, and married Jane Ballard in 1663. Jane Ballard was the sister of Thomas Ballard and the daughter of Ann, wife of William Thomas, by a former marriage.

Thomas Ballard, the brother of Jane Hilliard, was born about 1630, and died March 24, 1689. He was Clerk of York County, Virginia, in 1652, and many years later, a Burgess from James City in 1666, member of the Council in 1675, Speaker of the House of Burgess in 1680, and High Sherrif of James City in 1660. During Bacon's Rebellion, Thomas Ballard's wife was captured by Bacon and placed with other ladies who were also wives of members of the Council upon the breastworks before Jamestown where their white aprons warned Berkely from attack.

John and Jane Hilliard had two sons; John (2) born about April of 1664, and Jeremiah, born about 1666.

John (2) Hilliard, son of John and Jane Hilliard, was born about April of 1664. He married Mary Young, a sister of Sarah Jones of New Kent County. They resided in James City on 200 acres of land that adjoined 225 acres owned by John's brother, Jeremiah. Mary may have been the daughter or sister of Alexander Young. Alexander Young, innkeeper, bought lots 60 and 61 from the town trustees of Yorktown in 1669. He had obtained a license to keep an ordinary there two years earlier in 1697. Alexander, in his will dated November 5, 1700, and probated in 1701, devised his houses and lots to his son, Andrew, when he came of age. John (2) Hilliard was Executor of the will and continued operation of the ordinary there from February 24, 1701/03 until Andrew came of age August 24, 1703. On September 24, 1705, John Hilliard and Andrew Young petitioned the court of York County that they might operate a Ferry in Yorktown.

John Hilliard's brother Jeremiah owned 225 acres of land near John's plantation in James City. Jeremiah married Elizabeth _____ and they had four sons; John, Robert, Jeremiah, and William. After Jeremiah's death in 1710, Elizabeth married Simon Jeffries, a lawyer and official surveyor of that County. It has been stated that Simon Jeffries was the son of Governor Herbert Jeffries of Virginia, but proof is lacking. The name Jeremiah is a very prevalent name among the descendants of John (3) Hilliard in James City, and was also conspicuous among the Hilliards of North Carolina.

John (3) Hilliard, son of John (2) and Mary Hilliard, was born about 1685. He married Francis White, daughter of Joseph White. Joseph White, who died in 1710, was the son of Henry White (1631-1672) and Mary Croshaw, daughter of Major Joseph Croshaw, Burgess of York (1659/60) and Justice of the County Court. John and Francis lived in James City County and John's grandson, Jeremiah (son of Thomas and Lucy Hilliard) died at their house November 6, 1736. John and Francis Hilliard had at least two children; William, who married (1st) Unity Graves and (2nd) Molly _____ and Thomas, mentioned in the will of Ralph Graves.

Thomas Hilliard, son of John (3) and Francis Hilliard, patented 198 acres of escheat land in James City, December 1, 1740. He married Lucy _____ and they had at least five children: Jeremiah was born in 1729 and died at John (3) Hilliard's house November 6, 1736, Thomas was born in 1731, John was born March 4, 1736, Jeremiah (named after his brother that died as was the common custom of the times) was born about 1737, and Micajah, date of birth not known.

Jeremiah Hilliard, son of Thomas and Lucy Hilliard, married Kerrenhappuck and had the following children: Jeremiah was born May 21, 1758, and Thomas was born November 11, 1760. Jeremiah and Kerrenhappuck moved with their family to Granville County, North Carolina, possibly around 1767. Jeremiah apparently died shortly after this move.

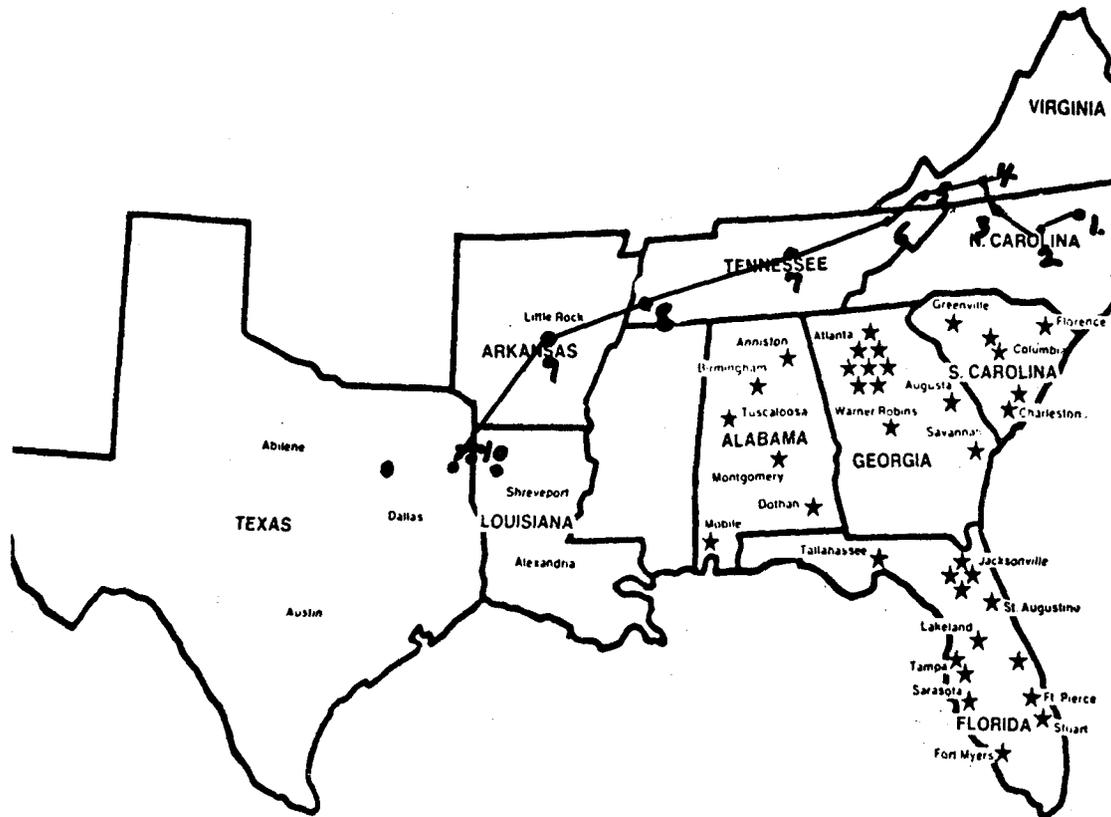

Thomas Hilliard, son of Jeremiah and Kerrenhappuck Hilliard, went to Granville County, North Carolina with his family when he was very young, and he remained in that area for the rest of his life. He served during the Revolutionary War; in the Militia in 1779, under the command of Capt. Smith and Lt. Rica, and in 1781 he was again in the Militia under the command of Capt. Gideon Gooch. Thomas married Sallie Bowden and their children were: Jeremiah (called Jeremy), John, William F., Bartlett, Micajah, Dandridge, Martha Beckham and Mary Williamson. Thomas died in Warren County, North Carolina in 1852.

Jeremy Hilliard, son of Thomas and Sallie Hilliard, was a lawyer in Granville County, North Carolina. He married Amelia Marie Toole Ridley, the widow of John Cobb Ridley, and they moved to Annie Glade, near Caddo Lake in Harrison County, Texas. Jeremy bought 769.8 acres of land from J. L. and Mahalia Nugent. Jeremy married Amelia Ridley, July 21, 1841, in Granville County, North Carolina, under the name of James Hilliard. Jeremy is listed on the 1850 Harrison County Census as a farmer. Jeremy and Amelia Hilliard had the following children: Emma Elizabeth, Walter and Henry Irwin.

Henry Irwin Hilliard, son of Jeremy and Amelia Hilliard, was born June 14, 1851, in Harrison County, Texas. He was a well-known physician and honored citizen of Marshall, Texas for many years. Dr. Henry Irwin Hilliard married Mildred Lavenia Baldwin of Harrison County, and they had ten children: Irwin, Annie, Emma, Etta Mae, Vernon, Walter, Henry, Myrtle and Myra (twins) and Eugene.

Walter Benjamin Hilliard, son of Dr. Henry Irwin and Mildred Lavenia Hilliard, was born September 20, 1885. Walter worked as a moulder for the T & P Shops. Walter Hilliard married Gertrude Forrest on August 1, 1905, and they had one daughter, Gertrude. Gertrude Forrest Hilliard died June 1, 1908, when the baby, Gertrude was just under five months old. Walter left the area after his wife died and Dr. Henry Irwin Hilliard and his wife (mammy) raised Gertrude. Gertrude lived with Mammy until Mammy died in 1934.

Gertrude Hilliard, daughter of Walter Benjamin Hilliard and Gertrude Forrest (daughter of Capt. Orren Perry Forrest of Hallsville, Texas) was born January 6, 1908. She married James Albert Oliphant of Marshall, Texas and they had two children: James Albert, Junior and Catherine. Gertrude and Jim both lived in Marshall all their lives and are still living there at this time (1983).

Jeremy Hilliard's Route from Oxford, North Carolina to Port Caddo, Texas from September to December 1848, in a Covered Wagon Train.

1. Left Oxford in Granville County, N. C. in September 1848.
2. Camped on the battleground at Guilford, N. C. six miles west of Greensboro on September 26, 1848.
3. Came by Mt. Airey, North Carolina.
4. Crossed the Blue Ridge Mountains at Fancy Gap in Virginia.
5. Camped in Hawkins County, Tennessee, October 8, 1848.
6. Camped in Hawkins County, Tennessee, October 8, 1848.
7. Camped 4 miles from Kingston, Roane County, Tenn. about 20 miles from the Cumberland Mountains on October 18, 1848.
8. Camped 7 miles from Memphis, Tenn., on November 11, 1848.
9. Camped 5 miles from Little Rock, Ark., November 24, 1848. Expected to arrive in Texas in "less than a fortnight" or a little less than 2 weeks.
10. The Hilliards settled in Annie Glade Community just a few miles from Port Caddo - just a few miles from Karnack, Texas and just over 30 miles from Shreveport, Louisiana. They probably arrived around the first week in December 1848.

THE HILLIARD LETTERS

Transcribed here are six letters written by Jeremy Hilliard to his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Toole, in North Carolina, and one written by Celestia Ridley, Jeremy's step-daughter, to her aunt in North Carolina. Jeremy had been a lawyer in Oxford, North Carolina, and he, his wife Amelia, their children, Emma and Walter, and Amelia's two children by a previous marriage - John and Celestia Ridley - all moved to Texas by horse and wagon in 1848. Amelia Hilliard's daughter, Virginia, and her husband, James B. Sims, also made the trip. These letters describe that trip.

There are 23 letters in all from Jeremy Hilliard in the Mrs. Albert Bauman Collection (Call Number PC 1497.1) in the North Carolina State Archives in Raleigh, North Carolina. Aunt Annie Mae Hilliard's friend, Eudora Coleman of Waskom, Texas obtained copies of these letters for her through some research she had done in North Carolina on the Perry family. These letters were all written on the trip from North Carolina to Texas, and the rest were written from the Hilliard's farm six miles from Port Caddo in East Texas. Some also relate part of a trip Jeremy and his family made from Shreveport to North Carolina and back by steamboat.

Another letter included in this article is one written by Thomas Hilliard describing his Revolutionary War service. Thomas was the father of Jeremy. This letter was taken from Thomas Hilliard's Revolutionary War Record.

The last letter is that written by Walter Hilliard to his brother, Henry Irwin Hilliard, concerning his going into medical practice. Both men were sons of Jeremy and Amelia Hilliard. Walter was just a baby when the Hilliards made the trip from North Carolina to Texas in covered wagons, and Henry was born on the Hilliard farm near Port Caddo in Harrison County, Texas. Walter Hilliard was a doctor in Shreveport, Louisiana for several years, and, according to the records, delivered many babies in that area. Henry Irwin Hilliard was a doctor in Harrison County and Marshall, Texas.

These letters are representative of three generations of the Hilliard family. They have been transcribed from the original handwriting by James A. Oliphant, Jr., a great grandson of Henry Irwin Hilliard.

The notes following each of Jeremy Hilliard's letters were made by the researcher in North Carolina.

Camp on the Battlefield at Guilford, N. C.
six miles west of Greensboro - Sept. 26, 1848

Mrs. Elizabeth Toole,

We have been delayed some by the illness of Maj. Simms and his negroes - all better now. He is mending slowly and taking Quinine. He fatigued too much yesterday riding on horseback. Mr. Hargrove has overtaken us. One of his children is sick. Mr. Levin Perry overtook us today at Camp. I suppose now there is about 150 in Company. Today it looks like a camp meeting. The road is beginning to be thronged with movers. I fear it will be much crowded further on & I am glad we started early. Here is a large Quaker Meeting House near our tent & the Ladies all went today to hear preaching. I did not go. After waiting a while for the spirit to move one lady rose & gave a short sermon touching the scripture here and there and all about. And then two grave men shook hands and all dispersed. My family are all well except a little complaint by the children, a slight cold, etc. Celestia eat so much cabbage today for dinner that she complains a little this afternoon. We expect to start out again in the morning and make headway. Amelia and Celestia like camping out better than they expected. Celestia says she is fattening like the old woman fattened her geese, but I don't know how that was. Celestia says she shall write you soon. They say they want to see you all very much. We all send our love to you and all the family. Fr. yours very truly

Jeremy Hilliard

The iron works on my waggon have bothered me more that everything else bursting and buckleing to pieces. I fear it will turn out to be a deathwaggon (?) to me. I never was worse treated in a piece of work, Amelia says tell Mr. Hill when he moves don't let Mr. Stalings have anything to do with his waggons.

J. H.

(Note: Mrs. Elizabeth Toole, nee King, was mother-in-law of Jeremy Hilliard. It is believed that Mr. Simms is the husband of Virginia Ridley, Mrs. Hilliard's daughter, and that Maj. Simms is her father-in-law.

Mr. Hargrove was Wm. R. Hargrove from Franklin County, N. C. (his wife was a Perry). Levin Perry from same county was brother of Mrs. Hargrove.

Celestia was Mrs. Hilliard's daughter by her 1st marriage.

Mr. Hill was Amelia Toole Hilliard's brother-in-law, David Hill.)

Camp within 2 miles of Wythe Court House
Sunday P. M. October 1st, 1848

Mrs. E. Toole

We are all well. I had to exchange my waggon for another & gave $40 boot. I could not get on with it. Mr. Hargrove swapped one of his and gave $60. We are all getting on finely now at the rate of about 20 miles a day. We came by Mount Airey & crossed the Blue Ridge at Fancy Gap, a sure way lately but out a little south of the Good Spur Gap - a fine road to the top of the Blue Ridge except that it is too narrow in many places. At one point the mountain scenery suddenly burst upon us, perhaps the finest I ever saw, Maj. Sims thought so too. Though, I thought not quite so sublime as some I have seen. It was rather strong for those who had never seen mountains to be in covered waggons with the deep ravines below as we wound around the mountains along the grooved road. Amelia and Celestia were taken with a swimming in the head, and finally sick stomach. I took them out of the carriage and walked with them some distance the mountain side of the road. Celestia has been scared half to death the last two or three days. Yesterday, crossing new river, Celestia & Polly sat down in the middle of the boat - Polly crying (Davy's wife) Sulistie says she never means to go to North Carolina again if she has to cross mountains. Last night was the first rainy night we have had, it is still raining gently. We spread a carpet & blanket over our tent and kept quite dry & comfortable & although it has been raining pretty steadily for 24 hours our tent is as dry and comfortable as a house. We live pretty well, today we had, for dinner, bacon & cabbage, a fine chicken pie, fried fresh fish, Irish potatoes, tomatoes, etc. Davy & his wife are excellent cooks. So far I am well pleased with the negroes I bought. Amelia and Celestia have fattened sweetly since they left home. The children all look well. I hope we shall get on well. It rains harder, I wish it would hold up as we shall have some bad roads now, but our horses pull finely. Celestia says to tell her Aunt Mary & Aunt Irwin, that she thinks of writing every Sunday, but on that day she is sure to eat too much and feels so lazy she can't write, but Amelia says next Sunday she shall not eat so much so that she may write.

All send their love to you and Mrs. Littlejohn and Mrs. Hill and families. John, Emma and Walter are around me telling me what to write to you & their little cousins, but I would as soon undertake to write down the chattering of birds.

truly your friend (?)

Jeremy Hilliard

(Note: Polly was one of the slave women, wife of Davy. Polly and Davy did the cooking.)

Aunt Mary - nee Toole - was the wife of Gen. Joseph B. Littlejohn and sister of Amelia HILLIARD.

Aunt (Susan) Irwin - nee Toole - was the wife of David Shine Hill.

Mr. Littlejohn was Mrs. Hilliard's brother-in-law.

John D. Ridley was Mrs. Hilliard's son by 1st marriage (almost grown).

Emma & Walter were Jeremy and Amelia Hilliard's children.)

Camp near Boat...(?) Hawkins County, Tennessee
Sunday P. M. Oct. 8, 1848

Mrs. Toole,

We are all well and getting on well. Yesterday was a washing day. We made a mighty show of tents, clothes, etc. drying. John is gone with Mr. Sims. We hated to part from him very much. We have had mighty rough roads two or three days & the ladies have got their jolting over rocks but the roads will be better now. Amelia and Celestia say they like Mr. Hargroves family very much. Amelia and Celestia say it seems a long time since they left you. They will expect a letter at Summittville and at Little Rock. Celestia says she can laugh as loud as she pleases at the Camp. We all send our best love to you & all the family & friends. I wish you were with us. Farewell - Your friend,

Jeremy Hilliard

P. S. I had to buy two horses before I got to where my negroes are to take on my other waggon & I have bought the finest match of horses I ever saw, one near Abington & the other at this camp - one for $100 & the other $80 - Claybank color with white flowing mane & tail. I thought it best to buy in the mountain country. They would sell for $350 in North Carolina.

J. H.

(Note: John D. Ridley moved into the waggons of his sister and brother-in-law Sims. Guess he needed adult companionship in lieu of that of his little half sister and brother.)

Camp 4 miles from Kingston, Roane County, Tennessee

October 18, 1848

My dearest Aunt

We are all well and at the worst camping place we have ever had yet, the country all around looks wild as if the bears and panthers had as soon come and devour us as not. I have seen two bears since I left home.

Aunt Irwin, we are still in hopes that we may see you in Texas before Spring. If you do start when you get to the Blue Ridge don't come by Fancy Gap for I can tell you, you will not fancy it if you are anything like I am. I laughed a little and cried a little and danced some too until I became almost blind. I saw Pa at a little distance & ran to him & he threw water in my face and I soon recovered. We are about 20 miles from the Cumberland Mountains now, I dread them very much.

Walter speaks very often of his wife. He says he is going to write to her when he gets to Texas. He has been quite sick since he left home but I think his health is better now than I have ever known it.

You asked me to write how we did at the camp. Everything does very well except when it rains and then we look like drowned rats. We have never had but one very rainy night yet - worse if we got sick then.

Ma joins me in love to you all. Tell Louise she must write to cousin Lestie and tell her all about the school girls & all the little things that have happened since she left. Give my warmest love to Grandmama and tell her I should have written long ago but Pa writes so often that I can never find time to write but I am going to write next Sunday if he does. I will not have it said that I have never written to my Grandmama. Write soon and believe me your affectionate Niece,

Celestia M. Ridley

P. S. Write to Summitville, Memphis, or Little Rock.

(Note: Celestia Ridley to her Aunt Irwin Hill. Reference to Walter's speaking of his wife, a little boy's fancy about a favorite playmate, no doubt. Walter was the young son of Jeremy and Amelia Hilliard and he was Celestia's half-brother.)

Camp 7 miles of Memphis
November 11, 1848

Mrs. E. Toole,

It is an hour before day - the family asleep. We are all well. I got off all our negroes from Miss. but I had to sacrifice in some cases one third and in other cases one half of the hire. Still I thought this better than to come back after them from Texas. Matilda has another child, she had been very sick but is now well; though she has not recovered her strength. I saw Dr. Malone, he has bought land near Memphis. I could not see Mrs. Hill or any of her family, she had gone to Dr. Payne's (?). While I was gone after the negroes my Company all left me. I suppose they have crossed the river. I hope to cross today or tomorrow. I don't think they ought to have left me. I waited for them on the road in N. C. but they are gone & joy go with them. Mr. Sims and Virginia have gone to Shreveport by public conveyance. I could write much more but have no time. Farewell, your friend,

Jeremy Hilliard

P. S. The road is thronged with movers. I have never seen the like. Their has been much delay at Memphis crossing. The old ferry boat sunk. They are towing them over with a Steam Boat. We are frequently asked if anybody is left behind.

(Note: Matilda mentioned in above letter was one of the slaves.)

Camp, 5 miles of Little Rock, Arkansas
November 24, 1848

Mrs. Elizabeth Toole,

All well. Thank the Lord. We have had some of the worst road I ever traveled over - from Memphis to White River. It had rained several times before we crossed the Mississippi River & it rained most of the time we were in the bottom - 40 miles from the Mississippi River to the St. Francis River. I would advise my friends in moving to be sure and cross that bottom before November. White River bottom 4 miles across was better. Amelia says she was scared all the way across the bottom and she says when you come you better come by public conveyance. I think so too. Celestia desires you to say to her Aunt Irwin she received her letter but has not had time to write yet. She and Amelia both intend writing long letters when we get to Texas. They wish you all to write often. We have had only one letter since we left. Arkansas is the driest (?) country I ever traveled over. My expenses since I left Memphis I think have averaged from 7 to 8 dollars a day & I am pushing might and main. We hope to reach Texas in less than a fortnight. We had a good deal of repairing to do to our carriages and waggons after we crossed the Mississippi bottom. After I got our negroes from Mississippi I bought a mule and caryall as a lighter. The trip will be more expensive than I anticipated. I could write more but have no time. Excuse me for the present. All send their love to you and all our friends. Farewell, your friend,

Jeremy Hilliard

Harrison County, Texas - February 27, 1849

Mrs. Toole,

I have letters on the way for all of you mailed sometime ago which I expect have probably reached you before now. As Col. Ward is at my house & about leaving for North Carolina, I write you a short letter. We are all well and getting much better satisfied every day. Mr. Simms & family are well. I wrote to Mr. Hill and Mr. Littlejohn & yourself various (?) others & I have no news to write. Amelia sends her love to you and says she hopes to see you here next Fall. Says she has a very comfortable room fixed up for you. She says do get somebody to write, if you can get nobody else get Louisa Hill to write. We have not had a letter from any of you since we came to this country. Celestia sends her love to you & says she has written so often she won't write any more. She says there are Beaux in Texas as well as North Carolina.

Col. Ward is in a hurry. Farewell. Our love to all of you. Your friend sincerely,

Jeremy Hilliard

P. S. Luzan had a daughter a few minutes ago. Tell Aunt Jinny.

(Note: Louisa Hill was the daughter of Amelia Hilliard's sister, Susan Hill. Luzna and Aunt Jinny were two of the slaves.)

Copied from the File No. S 9576 of Thomas Hilliard:

State of North Carolina, Court of Pleas, Dept. of pensions:
Warren County, N. C., August Term 1832.

On this 27th day of August, 1832 personally appeared in open court before the Justices of said Court, now setting, Thomas Hilliard of this county aforesaid, aged about 70 years - when being first - duely sworn according to law - on his oath makes the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of this act of Congress - 30th Jan 1832 - To wit: That he was born in the county of New Kent, state of Virginia, and that, when quite young, his parents moved and settled in the County of Granville, North Carolina. I do not know his precise age having no register of it but am confident that it is upward of seventy years about. About the last of February 1779, he volunteered in Granville for three months in the Militia under the Command of Capt. Smith and Lieut. Rica both of said County. That this Company to which he was attached was marched to James Bilbae's (?) fishery on Roan Oak River in the County of Mecklanburg, Virginia, where they were employed in catching and barreling shad for the army - the fishery and seine being trapped for that purpose. That he acquired at the end of the three months from Capt. Smith, as he now thinks, a discharge which he has lost or mislaid and cannot now find. In the next year 1780 - the chap (?) to which he belonged furnished a substitute which exempted it from the draft others called for. About the last of January 1781 he was drafted in the County of Granville aforesaid for three months service as Militia Man under the command of Capt. Gideon Gooch and was marched with his company to Hillsboro, N. Carolina where they joined the twelve months men commanded by Capt. Long of the County of Halifax, N. C. and Maj. Armstrong. That he remained at that place and was employed with the Militia and State troops in protecting the General Assembly of North Carolina then and there command and in keeping the Tories in check, who had threatened the General Assembly and committed much mischief in the neighborhood and county around it in col. farming - by plundering houses - destroying property - and in some instances killing the Whigs. This applicant states that at the expiration of this second service he was awarded a discharge from Col. Long as well as he remembers but this with his other discharge has been lost or mislaid that he cannot now find them - never considering them of any use after the termination of the war. He recollects the name of Capt. Trent and Capt. McFarland who commanded Companies of Militia at Hillsboro at the During this latter service he stated that the battle of Guilford was fought and that afterward marched with the american forces under command toward the South and Cornwallace with the Brittish Troops Wilmington, N. C. and b ack through Halifax N. C. to Virginia

This applicant hereby relinquishes every claim to a pension or annuity except this present - declares that his hame is not on the pension rolls of the Agency of any State and that he never has received any compensation for his services.

He knows of no person by whose personal knowledge he can prove his service - and the only corrobating testimony in his opinion is that examined by the respectable persons who have known to and solicited the affidavit. He lived in Granville during his service aforesaid within a very few miles of his present residence. The County of Warren where he has then since resided being taken from the county of Granville - it was first called Bute - and afterward Warren.

Sworn to in open court -

Dear Brother:

In regard to my books & instruments, I feel anxious to know how to arrange the money part of the business. Could you have them shipped to Shreveport, con Martin & Ford, C.O.D.? This would suit me better. If, however, you can not do this let me know & I will submit the money to you by Draft. I think it useless for me to specify the books or instruments that I want. You know as well as I do what I shall need most. I will only say that I wish to invest $100 in books and $50 in instruments. In regard to the vaginal speculum, I believe I prefer "Sims Duckbill Speculum". I have implicit confidence in your judgement about the matter & only ask you to do your best for me. I wish you to send me two books that I want for Vic vic! "Stepping Heavenward" by E. Prentiss & "The Changed (?) Cross". There is a picture accompanying this letter which I wish you to get. You can send these two books with my medical books. Now, Henry, "go ahead" & buy me $100 of good medical books & $50 worth surgical instruments & if you can, ship them to me at Shreveport con Martin & Ford C. O. D. If you can not do this, let me know but I feel certain that you can.

In all I have collected about $800 for you. Pa will be sure to submit you $265 by the 1st of March. It's still uncertain as to how much more we can get this winter. I believe though 60 per cent is all. Doubtless, you have heard of Louisa Ridley's marriage. She married Mr. Lofland (?). Cousin Sue Hill will be married soon to Mr. White of Holly Springs, Miss. He is a dentist. I expect you will see her in N. O. soon. Ma received a letter from you today. I tell you what "Bud" I begin to feel "all over" I shall be a married man in a few more days. I saw Vic a few days since for the last time until our marriage. I told her that you thought that she and I would be old Elam Johnson over again. I told her you called her Mrs. Elam. I thought she would laugh herself to death at the idea. I hear from Millie every few days. She is well. Our family are all well. Write to me immediately & let me know what you have done about the books and instruments. After the 26th of this month, my home will be in Shreveport. So when you direct your letters to me remember this.

Your affectionate brother

W. Hilliard

Home, Feb. 13th, 1872

(Note: Regarding the letter written by Dr. Walter Hilliard to his brother, Dr. Henry Irwin Hilliard, on February 13, 1872:

I found the original letter in my Mother's cedar chest in Marshall, Texas, after her death July 29, 1983. Her grandmother, Dr. Henry I. Hilliard's wife, Mildred Baldwin, had evidently saved it and then my Mother saved it all these years. The stamp had been cut off (my Mother probably gave it to someone that collected

EXTRACTS FROM EARLY SHREVEPORT LOUISIANA SOCIAL DIRECTORY

A Shreveport Social Directory was published in 1937 by the Shreveport Social Directory Publishers, 222 Milam Street, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Included in the listings of prominent Shreveport families was information concerning the maiden name of the spouse, residential address, affiliations, names of children and their spouses, if married.

Realizing the genealogical importance to be found in this publication of more than 50 years ago, the following article abstracts only the names of those families with genealogical information. Names of families with no genealogical information have been omitted.

Given here is the name of the family with the maiden name of the wife in parenthesis, the names of eligible children and names of the children's spouses, if married.

BOSSIER PARISH

MARRIAGES 1867-1875

(Note. The following is a continuation of marriage records copied by Ethel Krause from Marriage Book "C", sometimes designated as Book 3, of Bossier Parish, Louisiana. The original record books are in the office of the Clerk of Court of Bossier Parish, Benton, Louisiana 71006.)

On the 5th of November 1868 "An Act Relative To Marriage" was passed whereby slaves who had been married by a minister were given permission to remarry and legitimize their children.

IBERVILLE PARISH CEMETERY RECORDS PUBLISHED

Iberville Parish Cemeteries is the latest publication of Le Comite des Archives de la Louisiane. Compiled and edited by Judy Riffel and with text by Judy Riffel, tombstone inscriptions have also been compiled by Larry Gates, J. J. Pas-torek, Rita E. Jackson, Ann D. Riffel, Barbara C. Strickland, James T. Rills and Randy Hutchinson. Sketches included are by Pearl Hebert Kranske.

Cemeteries represented in these inscriptions are Bayou Goula, Grosse Tete, Maringouin, Plaquemine, Point Pleasant, Rosedale, St. Gabriel, White Castle and other plantation, family and abandoned cemeteries.

The 380 pages in this soft-cover, 8½ x 11 book include a full-name index. Eleven pages are devoted to reproductions of the custom of funeral posters.

A copy of this essential reference volume for research in Iberville Parish, Louisiana, has been donated by La Comite to the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association and will be placed in the genealogy department of the Shreve Memorial Library. La Comite is an organization devoted to the support of the Louisiana State Archives and profits from its projects are dedicated to helping the Archives improve as a research facility. In 1990, funds in La Comite's budget are being set aside for book and microfilm acquisitions, educational materials and publications.

This book sells for $20.00 to non-members, $18.00 to members, plus $2.50 postage. Membership is open to all who are interested in helping promote the facilities of the Louisiana State Archives. Address Le Comite des Archives de la Louisiane, P. O. Box 44370, Capitol Station, Baton Rouge, LA 70804.

ERROR IN PRICE OF BOOK

A review of the book "Chancery Court Records of McMinn County, Tennessee", compiled and edited by Reba Bayless Boyer, printed on page 181 of the Second Quarter publication of the Genie, misquoted the price of the volume. The cost, postpaid, is only $25.00. Mrs. Boyer is also the compiler of "Monroe County, Tennessee Chancery Court Records", which sells for $32.00. Both books may be obtained from Reba Boyer, P. O. Box 416, Athens, TN 37303.

THE PRICE FAMILY CEMETERY

Shelby County, Texas

The Price Family Cemetery is located approximately 10 miles northeast of Center, and 7 miles southeast of Joaquin in Shelby County, Texas, as shown on the accompanying map.

It was originally a family burying plot, but has since been enlarged and now contains graves of many outside the Price family descendants. The attached inventory of graves is current as of August 1, 1989.

The cemetery is operated by an Association that has gone a long way toward insuring perpetual care. The Association meets the first Saturday in September and May of each year at the cemetery when individual graves are cared for by family members.

It is currently being fenced with a chain link fence that will be completed in the spring of 1990.

The Association has regulations concerning the burial of those outside the associational membership and their families.

(The inventory was done by Mrs. Johnnie Burgess, Center, TX. Report compiled by B. M. McCrary, Shreveport, LA.)

(All graves with markers are listed here. The first group are all Price descendants.)

stamps) and the postmark was illegable. The letter was addressed to Dr. Henry I. Hilliard at Scottsville, Harrison County, Texas.

The contents of the letter are self-explanatory for the most part. There is one part of the letter that referred to what was probably a private joke between two brothers that I was unable to understand at first. Walter was saying that in a few more days he would be married to his future wife, Victoria-he called her Vick. He wrote: "I told her you called her Mrs. Elam and I thought she would laugh herself to death at the idea." When I talked to Mrs. Inez Hughs at the Harrison County Historical Society, and showed her the letter, she laughed and explained that part to me. "Old Elam Johnson" was Dr. E. P. M. Johnson or Elam Porter Miller Johnson. Dr. Elam Johnson was a Doctor in Harrison County and he had seventeen children.

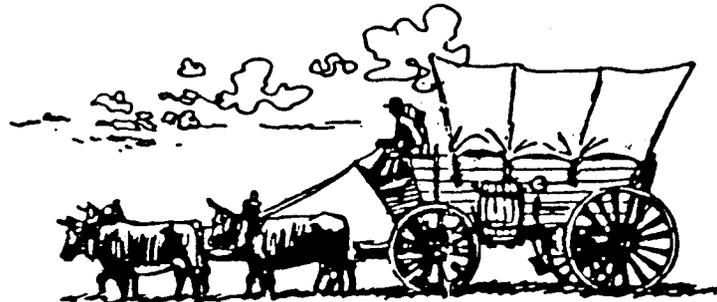

Dr. Johnson was also the grandfather of Mr. Jodie Johnson of Marshall, who is a real close friend of my parents.

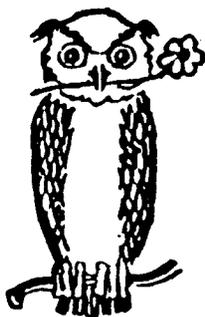

Both brothers were just getting ready to start their medical practice and both were just on the verge of getting married.

It is interesting to note that Walter only had two children, but Henry who was teasing Vickie about being Mrs. Elam, and she and Walter being "Old Elam Johnson all over again", had ten children.

Jimmy Oliphant

TITLE: DESIDERIO QUINA: FIVE GENERATIONS IN AMERICA, compiled & edited by Charlotte K. Quina

ORDER FROM: Charlotte K. Quina, 3929 Old Highway 37, No. 6, Lakeland, FL 33813

COST: $27.65

Hard Cover

Desiderio Quina was born in Bologna, Italy in 1777, the son of Camillio Chini and Domenica Gentilini. He was baptized Desiderio Maris Chini. His ancestry goes back to his great-grandparents, Tommaso Chini and Berenice Costa. Desiderio emigrated to Pensacola, Florida, and in 1813 married Margarita Bobe, daughter of Thomas Bobe and Anna Maria de Sierra. Desiderio died in 1830, and Margarita in 1863, and both are buried in St. Michael Cemetery in Pensacola. He had seven children, two of whom married brothers, Francisco and Louis Gabriel Touart. This family is related through marriage to a number of other notable Gulf Coast families including ALVAREZ, FLORES, SANCHEZ, CHRISTIE, HARVEY, MARZONI, ORDONEZ, and SWAINE. A well-documented and well-written study with interesting end papers. Those with descent from this family will certainly want a copy in their library. 226 pages, indexed.

TITLE: A BOOK ABOUT CAREYVILLE, TENNESSEE, AND LOCAL AREAS, CAREYVILLE
THROUGH THE YEARS, compiled by Marshall L. McGhee and Melba Jackson

ORDER FROM: Marshall L. McGhee, P. O. Box 248, Careyville, TN 33714

COST: $12.00

Paper Cover

The land around Wheeler's Station in Kentucky was later named Careyville in honor of Judge William Carey. William's parents, Robert Philipson Carey and Martha "Patty" North, originally came from Virginia. William was born in either Campbell or Claiborne Counties, boundary changes make the record uncertain. In 1806, three Wheeler brothers, including Thomas, also came from Virginia to this area. William Carey met and married Maline Emily Wheeler, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Wheeler, 18 December 1831. Many have contributed articles and memorabilia to this chronicling of those early settlers of Careyville down through the years to the present time. Sixteen cemetery locations and burials are recorded in a special section. 124 pages.

ORDER FROM: Frank Simerly, 4531 Hillard Ave., La Canada, CA 91011

COST: $27.50 postpaid

Spiral Bound

The emigre Zimmerles left Bavaria (now Pfalz) Germany in 1766. On the 25th of July 1761, the South Carolina General Assembly passed an Act that allowed Bounty (grants of land and other assistance) to protestants that settled in the province.

The South Carolina Council Journal Petitions for Bounty presented 17 October 1766, included the names of five Zimmerles: Johann Philip, Mary Eliz'h, Anna Marg't, John Jacob and Hans. At the same meeting eight Zimmerles were listed with their ages, as having come into the province. Of those, the descendants of Adam and John are traced in this book. Both are on the tax lists of Washington County, North Carolina in 1792, and John states that he received a Land Grant numbered 1053 from North Carolina that year. Both are found in Carter County, Tennessee. John applied for a Revolutionary War pension in 1844, at the age of 92, and died a year or two later in Blount County, Tennessee. Chapters are included of the Georgia Simmerlys, the Virginia Zimmerlys, the California Simmerleys, and the Swiss Zimmerlis. 136 pages, full name index.

TITLE: GREENBRIER COUNTY (WEST) VIRGINIA RECORDS, VOLUME 2: PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX LISTS: 1782: 1782/83, 1786/88, 1792, 1796, 1799, 1805, 1815, transscribed by Larry Shuck

ORDER FROM: Iberian Publishing Company, 548 Cedar Creek Drive, Athens, GA 30605-

COST: $22.00 plus $2.00 postage

Paper Cover

New for 1989, is the author's continued compiling of Greenbrier's early records by the transcribing of selected personal property tax lists for this county until the time when surviving censuses are available to continue the search for ancestors. In the years when a date of visitation is included (1792, 1796 and 1799) two lists are available: one is presented in its entirety in alphabetical order, the second is abbreviated fashion by date of visitation. In this way the researcher can provide helpful clues as to who an ancestor's neighbors were. (Editor's note: Among the taxpayers listed in this book is Swift Perry, great-great-grandfather of the editor. Swift Perry, himself, is credited with having taken the tax list on the Breenbrier River about 1776, in the days when this area was a part of Botetourt County, Virginia.) As the compiler points out, "abundant clues are available to father-son relationships within these lists for the assiduous researcher. For example, if John Smith is taxed with two tithes in 1792, and then drops back to one tithe in 1796, when James Smith first appears in the list, this is a clue that a family relationship exists between these two men." 302 pages.

TENNESSEE COUNTY TAX LISTS

Marilyn Bell Hughes, archivist with the Tennessee State Archives, was the guest speaker at the 1989 genealogical seminar of the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association. Emphasis at that time was on researching in Tennessee with much information disseminated as to availability of finding aids.

Listed here are the Tennessee counties whose tax records are available by writing the Archives and Records Section, Tennessee State Library and Archives, Nashville, Tennessee 37219. The dates given alongside the county names indicate that tax records are available for these years. Many of these tax lists are indexed and can be checked for specific names, within limitations of the Archives staff. The fee for copying the records you request by mail will be quoted to you in reply to your letter.
